On the Merger Date, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Cayman Companies Act and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, PubCo, SEDA and Merger Sub shall take those steps in accordance with this Section 2.01, pursuant to which, at the Merger Effective Time, SEDA shall be merged with and into Merger Sub with Merger Sub being the surviving entity, following which the separate corporate existence of SEDA shall cease and Merger Sub shall continue as the surviving company (provided that references in this Agreement to SEDA for periods after the Merger Effective Time shall include Merger Sub).

(a) Merger Effective Time. On the Merger Date, PubCo, SEDA and Merger Sub shall cause the executed Plan of Merger and other required Merger Filing Documents to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware and the Cayman Islands Registry of Companies. The parties agree that the effective time of the Merger shall be at 10:00 a.m. Delaware time on the Business Day immediately prior to the Closing Date ("Merger Effective Time").

(b) Effect of the Merger. At the Merger Effective Time, the Merger shall have the effects set forth in this Agreement, the Plan of Merger and the applicable provisions of the Cayman Companies Act and Delaware Limited Liability Company Act. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, and subject thereto, at the Merger Effective Time, all the property, rights, privileges, agreements, powers and franchises, debts, Liabilities, duties and obligations of SEDA and Merger Sub shall vest in and become the property, rights, privileges, agreements, powers and franchises, debts, Liabilities, duties and obligations of Merger Sub as the surviving company (including all rights and obligations with respect to the Trust Account), which shall include the assumption by Merger Sub of any and all agreements, covenants, duties and obligations of SEDA set forth in this Agreement to be performed after the Merger Effective Time, and Merger Sub shall thereafter exist as a wholly owned Subsidiary of PubCo.

(c) Organizational Documents of Merger Sub. At the Merger Effective Time, Merger Sub's Organizational Documents, as in effect immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time, shall be amended and restated in their entirety in the form of the amended and restated limited liability company agreement of Merger Sub agreed by the Parties prior to Closing pursuant to Section 11.12 (the "A&R LLCA of Merger Sub"), and shall be the limited liability company agreement of Merger Sub, until thereafter amended in accordance with the terms thereof and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act.

(e) Effect of the Merger on Issued Securities of SEDA and Merger Sub. At the Merger Effective Time, by virtue of and as part of the agreed consideration for the Merger and without any action on the part of any party hereto or the holders of securities of SEDA or Merger Sub:

(i) SEDA Units. Each SEDA Unit outstanding immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time shall be automatically detached and the holder thereof shall be deemed to hold one SEDA Class A Share and one-half of a SEDA Warrant in accordance with the terms of the applicable SEDA Unit, which underlying SEDA Securities shall be adjusted in accordance with the applicable terms of this Section 2.01(e).

(ii) SEDA Shares. Immediately following the separation of each SEDA Unit in accordance with Section 2.01(e)(i), each SEDA Class B Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time shall be converted into 0.893 SEDA Class A Shares, unless otherwise agreed in writing. Following such conversion, each issued and outstanding SEDA Class A Share immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time shall be automatically cancelled, shall no longer be outstanding and shall cease to exist. The holder of each such SEDA Class A Share (except any holder of Dissenting SEDA Shares) shall have the right to receive as of the Merger Effective Time the number of fully paid PubCo Shares (having the terms set forth in the New PubCo Articles) equal to the Exchange Ratio for each SEDA Class A Share so cancelled. PubCo shall allot and issue such PubCo Shares in consideration of such cancellation of the SEDA Class A Shares and the issuance of the number of Merger Sub Units agreed to by the Shareholders and SEDA prior to the Closing Date by Merger Sub to PubCo (immediately following such issuance of PubCo Shares, Merger Sub shall issue such Merger Sub Units to PubCo).

(iii) Adjustment of SEDA Public Warrants and SEDA Private Warrants. Each SEDA Warrant shall remain outstanding but shall be automatically adjusted by way of an amendment and restatement of the Warrant Agreement entered into immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time to become, at the Merger Effective Time, a warrant to purchase one (1) whole PubCo Share (each, a "SEDA Adjusted Warrant"). Each such SEDA Adjusted Warrant will continue to have, and be subject to, the same terms and conditions set forth in the Warrant Agreement immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time (including any repurchase rights and cashless exercise provisions), except that each SEDA Adjusted Warrant will be exercisable (or will become exercisable in accordance with its terms) for one (1) PubCo Share.

(iv) Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, no fractional shares of PubCo Shares shall be issued as consideration for the Merger, and each Person who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of PubCo Shares (after aggregating all fractional shares of PubCo Shares that otherwise would be received by such Person in connection with the Closing) shall instead have the number of shares of PubCo Shares issued to such Person rounded down to the nearest whole shares of PubCo Shares.

(f) Notice to SEDA Shareholders Delivering Written Objection. If any SEDA Shareholder delivers to SEDA, before the SEDA Shareholder Approval is obtained at the SEDA Meeting, a written objection to the Merger (each, a "Written Objection") in accordance with Section 238(2) and 238(3) of the Cayman Companies Act, SEDA shall, following the SEDA Shareholder Approval, in accordance with Section 238(4) of the Cayman Companies Act, promptly deliver written notice of the authorization of the Merger to each such SEDA Shareholder who has made a Written Objection.

Cayman Companies Act relevant to the exercise and perfection of dissenters' rights (all such shares collectively, the "Dissenting SEDA Shares", and all the holders of such Dissenting SEDA Shares collectively, the "Dissenting SEDA Shareholders") shall not be converted into, and no Dissenting SEDA Shareholder shall be entitled to receive, the applicable consideration unless and until such Dissenting SEDA Shareholder fails to perfect or withdraws or otherwise loses his, her or its right to dissenters' rights under the Cayman Companies Act. The SEDA Shares held by any SEDA Shareholder who fails to perfect or who effectively withdraws or otherwise loses his, her or its dissenters' rights pursuant to the Cayman Companies Act shall cease to be Dissenting SEDA Shares and shall thereupon automatically be cancelled and cease to exist in exchange for the right to receive the applicable consideration pursuant to Section 2.01(e), without any interest thereon.

(ii) Prior to the Closing Date, SEDA shall give KME (A) prompt written notice of any demands for dissenters' rights received by SEDA from SEDA Shareholders (including any notices received by SEDA pursuant to Section 238(2) or Section 238 (5) of the Cayman Companies Act) and any withdrawals of such demands, and (B) the opportunity to consult with SEDA in connection with all negotiations and proceedings with respect to any such notice or demand for dissenters' rights under the Cayman Companies Act. SEDA shall not, except with the prior written consent of KME, make any offers or payment or otherwise agree or commit to any payment or other consideration with respect to any exercise by a SEDA Shareholder of its rights to dissent from the Merger or any demands for appraisal or offer or agree or commit to settle or settle any such demands or approve any withdrawal of any such dissenter rights or demands.

(h) No Liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 2.01, neither SEDA nor PubCo, or any other party hereto shall be liable to any Person for any amount properly paid to a Public Official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar Law.

9.03 Inspection. Subject to confidentiality obligations and similar restrictions (including privileged information) that may be applicable to information furnished to JV GmbH or any of its Subsidiaries and KME, KME Germany, KME Mansfeld or KME America (with respect to the Aerospace Business) by third parties that may be in JV GmbH's or its Subsidiaries' or KME's, KME Germany's, KME Mansfeld's or KME America's (with respect to the Aerospace Business) possession from time to time, JV GmbH and KME shall, and KME shall cause KME Germany, KME Mansfeld or KME America to, afford to SEDA and its Representatives reasonable access during the Interim Period, during normal business hours and with reasonable advance notice, in such manner as to not interfere with the normal operations of JV GmbH or its Subsidiaries, KME, KME Germany, KME Mansfeld or KME America, to all of their respective properties, books, Contracts, commitments, Tax Returns, records projections, plans, systems and appropriate officers and employees of JV GmbH, its Subsidiaries, KME, KME Germany, KME Mansfeld or KME America, and shall furnish such Representatives with all financial and operating data and other information concerning the affairs of the JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries and the Aerospace Business Assets that are in its or their possession as such Representatives may reasonably request, in each case for the purpose of effecting the Transaction. The parties hereto shall use commercially reasonable efforts to make alternative arrangements for such disclosure where the restrictions in the foregoing sentence apply. All information obtained by SEDA and its Representatives under this Agreement shall be subject to the Confidentiality Agreement prior to the Closing.

9.04 No SEDA Transactions.

(a) From and after the date hereof until the Closing Date, except as otherwise contemplated by this Agreement, neither the Shareholders, JV GmbH, PP Holding, nor any of their respective Subsidiaries or controlling Affiliates shall, directly or indirectly, engage in any transactions involving the securities of SEDA without the prior consent of SEDA. The Shareholders, JV GmbH, and PP Holding shall use reasonable best efforts to require each of their Subsidiaries and controlling affiliates to comply with the foregoing sentence.

(b) Each Shareholder hereby agrees that neither it, nor any person or entity acting on its behalf or pursuant to any understanding with such Shareholder, shall, directly or indirectly, engage in any hedging activities or execute any Short Sales with respect to the securities of SEDA prior to the Closing or the earlier termination of this Agreement in accordance with its terms.

9.05 Use of Proceeds. Neither Paragon nor KME will directly or knowingly indirectly, use proceeds of the Exchange (including the Paragon Cash Consideration and the KME Cash Consideration), or lend, contribute or otherwise make available such proceeds to any Person (i) to fund or facilitate any activities of or business in or with any Sanctioned Jurisdiction or with any Sanctioned Person in violation of applicable Sanctions, or (ii) in any other manner that would result in a violation of Sanctions by any party hereto.

9.06 No Claim Against the Trust Account. Notwithstanding anything else in this Agreement, JV GmbH, PP Holding, and the Shareholders acknowledge that they have read SEDA's final prospectus, dated November 1, 2021, and other SEC Reports, SEDA's Organizational Documents and the Trust Agreement and understands that SEDA has established the Trust Account described therein for the benefit of SEDA's public shareholders and that disbursements from the Trust Account are available only in the limited circumstances set forth therein. JV GmbH, PP Holding, and the Shareholders further acknowledge that, if the Transactions or, in the event of termination of this Agreement, another Business Combination are not consummated by March 2, 2024, or such later date as approved by the shareholders of SEDA or the SEDA Board, following shareholder approval, to complete a Business Combination in connection with an extension, SEDA will be obligated to return to its shareholders the amounts being held in the Trust Account. Accordingly, JV GmbH, PP Holding, and the Shareholders, each on behalf of itself and its Affiliates, hereby waive any past, present or future claim of any kind against, and any right to access, the Trust Account, any trustee of the Trust Account and SEDA to collect from the Trust Account any monies that may be owed to them by SEDA or any of its Affiliates for any reason whatsoever, and will not seek recourse against the Trust Account at any time for any reason whatsoever. This Section 9.06 shall survive the termination of this Agreement for any reason.

9.07 Proxy Solicitation: Other Actions.

(a) The Shareholders and JV GmbH agree to use reasonable best efforts to, provide SEDA and PubCo, or cause to be provided to SEDA and PubCo, true, correct and complete copies of (A) as promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement (i) audited financial statements (audited to PCAOB standards), including consolidated balance sheets, statements of operations, statements of income and cash flows, and statements of stockholders equity of JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries as of and for the years ended December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2023 (the latter period if and when required in accordance with the Form F-4) together with an unqualified audit report thereon from JV GmbH's independent public accountants, in each case, prepared in accordance with IFRS (collectively, the "PCAOB Audited Financials") and (ii) any unaudited pro forma financial statements required by Regulation S-X under the rules and regulations of the SEC (as interpreted by the staff of the SEC) to be included in the Form F-4 (the "Pro Forma Financials" and, together with the PCAOB Audited Financials, the "Required Financials") and (B) as promptly as reasonably practicable, make any necessary amendments, restatements or revisions to the Required Financials such that they remain compliant with the applicable rules and regulations of the SEC governing the Form F-4 as required in order to consummate the Transactions.

(b) JV GmbH shall be available to, and JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries and Affiliates shall use reasonable best efforts to make their officers and employees available to, in each case, upon reasonable advance notice, SEDA and its counsel in connection with the drafting of the Form F-4, of which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, and responding in a timely manner to comments on the Form F-4, of which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus forms a part, from the SEC. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries shall reasonably cooperate with SEDA in connection with the preparation for inclusion in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus of unaudited pro forma financial statements that comply with the requirements of Regulation S-X under the rules and regulations of the SEC (as interpreted by the staff of the SEC). KME agrees to use reasonable best efforts to provide SEDA and PubCo, as soon as reasonably practicable, (a) year end 2022 and 2023 and any required interim financial statements of the Aerospace Business, if any, required or requested by the SEC to be included in the Form F-4 and (b) any and all financial information related to the Aerospace Business required for the preparation of the unaudited pro forma financial information, or as otherwise required, to be included in the Form F-4.

(c) From and after the date on which the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is mailed to the SEDA Shareholders, JV GmbH will give SEDA prompt written notice of any action taken or not taken by JV GmbH or any of its Subsidiaries or of any development regarding JV GmbH or any of its Subsidiaries, in any such case that is known by JV GmbH that would cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided that if any such action shall be taken or fail to be taken or such development shall otherwise occur, SEDA and JV GmbH shall cooperate fully to cause to promptly be made an amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or, to the extent required by Securities Laws, a post-effective amendment to the Form F-4, such that the Form F-4 and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus no longer contain an untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading; provided, further, however, that no information received by SEDA pursuant to this Section 9.07 shall operate as a waiver or otherwise affect any representation, warranty or agreement given or made by the party who disclosed such information, and no such information shall be deemed to change, supplement or amend the Schedules.

9.08 Additional Funding

(a) If and to the extent the Available Cash is less than $175,000,000, and SEDA has substantially complied with the covenants contained in Section 10.02, then KME shall make, or cause to be made, a payment by wire transfer of immediately available funds in an amount equal to the Shortfall to PubCo, which may be financed in KME's sole discretion by debt and/or equity in each case without recourse to PubCo, JV GmbH or any of its Subsidiaries, on the Closing Date and subject to Closing (the “Additional Funding”).

(b) Notwithstanding the obligations in Section 9.08(a), KME may, in its sole discretion, elect to reduce the amount of KME Cash Consideration payable to KME pursuant to Section 2.04(a)(ii) by any amount (“KME Cash Consideration Reduction”) (provided, that the KME Cash Consideration shall not be less than zero (0)) and reduce the amount of Additional Funding payable by KME to PubCo in the same amount as the KME Cash Consideration Reduction upon five (5) Business Days prior written notice to PubCo, SEDA and Paragon. Such notice shall set out the amount of the KME Cash Consideration Reduction and the reduced amount of the Additional Funding. For the avoidance of doubt, if KME elects to make a KME Cash Consideration Reduction, then PubCo’s obligation to pay the KME Cash Consideration will be fully satisfied upon paying the amount of KME Cash Consideration, less the KME Cash Consideration Reduction, to KME.

9.09 Expense Side Letter. As of the date hereof, KME shall enter into a side letter with JV GmbH pursuant to which KME agrees that in the event that Closing does not occur, it will reimburse JV GmbH for any JV GmbH Transaction Expenses, until the date on which this Agreement is terminated in accordance with ARTICLE XIII.

9.10 PIPE Investment. None of PubCo or SEDA or their respective Affiliates or Subsidiaries shall enter into or consummate any transaction documents in connection with the PIPE Investment prior to Closing without the prior written consent of each of the Shareholders (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed).

9.11 Directors’ Resignations. JV GmbH and PP Holding shall use reasonable best efforts to procure that, on the Closing Date, those directors of JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries and PP Holding, as determined by the Shareholders and SEDA, shall have executed and delivered to the applicable entity letters of resignation in a mutually agreed form resigning from their positions as directors of JV GmbH and its Subsidiaries and PP Holding, as applicable.

9.12 Notifications, Waivers, Consents, Licenses and Trademarks. JV GmbH will use commercially reasonable efforts to procure the waivers, consents, licenses and trademark applications identified on Schedule 9.12 of the JV GmbH Disclosure Schedules prior to the Closing.

9.13 Support Agreements. Each of the Shareholders irrevocably and unconditionally agrees that, until the Closing Date has occurred and to the extent permitted by Law, it shall vote or cause to be voted all of the shares of JV GmbH owned by such Shareholder in favor of the Transactions at any meeting of the JV GmbH Shareholders convened in respect of the same, and each Shareholder hereby consents to the Transactions.

9.14 PubCo Tax Residence. KME intends that PubCo shall be managed and controlled such that it shall remain solely a tax resident of the U.K.

9.15 Existing Facility. JV GmbH shall, prior to Closing, use its reasonable best efforts to procure the Debt Refinancing and the obtainment of: (i) the Existing Facility Release Letter, and (ii) all necessary waivers, consents, amendments, confirmation and/or approvals required for the incurrence of indebtedness under, and (p)repayment of, the Paragon Vendor Loan to be expressly permitted under the Debt Refinancing, in each case on terms satisfactory to SEDA (acting reasonably).

9.16 Financing Cooperation.

(a) During the period from the date of this Agreement until Closing, each of JV GmbH, PP Holding, Cunova and the Shareholders shall provide, and use their respective best efforts to direct their Subsidiaries and their Subsidiaries’ Representatives to provide, such cooperation and information in connection with any Financing as may be reasonably requested by SEDA, including using its best efforts to: (i) provide pertinent and customary information regarding JV GmbH, Cunova and their Subsidiaries as may be reasonably requested in writing by SEDA, (ii) make appropriate members of senior management of JV GmbH, Cunova and their Subsidiaries available at reasonable and mutually agreed times and locations and upon reasonable prior notice, to participate in a reasonable number of presentations, meetings and due diligence sessions with rating agencies, potential providers of any Financing and their respective advisors, (iii) to assist with the preparation of disclosure documents, offering documents, private placement

(b) During the period from the date of this Agreement until Closing, each of PubCo, Merger Sub, PP Holding, Cunova, the Shareholders and SEDA shall provide, and use their best efforts to direct their Subsidiaries and their Subsidiaries’ Representatives to provide, such cooperation and information as may be reasonably requested by JV GmbH in writing to facilitate the Debt Refinancing and to obtain all necessary waivers, consents, amendments, confirmation and/or approvals required for the incurrence of indebtedness under, and (p)repayment of, the Paragon Vendor Loan to be expressly permitted under the terms of any Debt Refinancing.

(c) JV GmbH and Cunova hereby consent to the use of their and their Subsidiaries’ logos in connection with any Financing; provided that such logos are used solely in a manner that is not intended to, nor reasonably likely to, harm or disparage JV GmbH’s or Cunova’s or their Subsidiaries’ reputation or goodwill.

9.17 Amendment and Replacement of Aerospace Business Contracts. Until completion of the Aerospace Business Transfer and except in the ordinary course of business, KME shall not, and shall procure that each of KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) shall not, enter into new Aerospace Business Contracts or terminate, replace on materially different terms, substitute on materially different terms or materially amend any Aerospace Business Contract without first consulting with and obtaining the prior written consent (not to be withheld unreasonably) of Cunova. KME shall provide an updated Schedule 5.03(b) of the KME Disclosure Schedules not less than four (4) Business Days prior to Closing, provided Cunova shall not be obligated to assume any Aerospace Business Contract which was not included on Schedule 5.03(b) of the KME Disclosure Schedules as of the date of this Agreement, except where Cunova has provided its prior written consent to the inclusions of such Aerospace Business Contract in accordance with this Section 9.17, or which are purchase orders entered into in the ordinary course of business materially consistent with past practice with existing customers.

9.18 Notification and Consent of Counterparties to Aerospace Business Contracts.

(a) Cunova and KME shall cooperate, and KME shall procure that each of KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable), shall cooperate, to notify, as soon as reasonably possible following the date hereof and until the expiration of the respective Aerospace Business Contract (including after the Closing Date), any counterparty to the Aerospace Business Contracts of the transfer to Cunova and request their consent to the transfer and assignment of such Aerospace Business Contracts vis-à-vis any such relevant counterparty.

(b) Should any such counterparty to the Aerospace Business Contracts refuse to grant its consent prior to the Closing Date to the assignment of the relevant Aerospace Business Contract, KME shall procure that each of KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) shall put Cunova, to the extent legally possible, economically in a position (on an after Tax basis) as if the assignment of the relevant Aerospace Business Contract by KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) to Cunova would have been effected as of the Closing Date, including by way of sub-licensing, sub-contracting or similar arrangement to Cunova providing that any enforcement by KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) of any rights under the relevant Aerospace Business Contract shall be for the benefit and account of Cunova; provided, that Cunova agrees in writing to indemnify KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) on terms mutually agreeable to Cunova and KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) for any payments to be made by KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) under any such Aerospace Business Contract after the Closing Date. For the avoidance of doubt, liabilities arising out of the continuation of the Aerospace Business Contracts in accordance with this Section 9.18(b) shall not be borne by KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America.

(c) KME shall procure that any payments or other performances of a counterparty to the Aerospace Business Contracts made under the Aerospace Business Contracts and any offers, orders, requests and other communication relating to any Aerospace Business Contract or otherwise to the Aerospace Business, received by KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) after the Closing Date shall be remitted to Cunova without undue delay or deductions if and to the extent the payments or other performances relate to products delivered or services rendered after the Closing Date.

(d) To the extent separate or further specific documents or instruments should be required to effect or document the assignment of any of the Aerospace Business Contracts, Cunova hereby agrees to, and KME shall procure that each of KME Germany, KME Mansfeld and KME America (as applicable) shall, execute, or procure to be executed, all such documents and instruments reasonably requested without additional compensation.

(a) As promptly as practicable following the execution and delivery of this Agreement, PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA, and JV GmbH shall use reasonable best efforts to prepare and mutually agree upon (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and PubCo and SEDA shall use reasonable best efforts to file, or cause to be filed, with the SEC, the Form F-4 in connection with the registration under the Securities Act of the PubCo Shares (it being understood that the Form F-4 shall include the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which will be included therein as a prospectus and which will be used as a proxy statement for the SEDA Meeting with respect to the Proposals) in accordance with applicable Law and applicable proxy solicitation and registration statement rules set forth in SEDA’s Organizational Documents and the rules and regulations of the SEC and NYSE. Each of PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA, JV GmbH and KME (with respect to the Aerospace Business) shall furnish all information concerning it as may reasonably be requested by any of PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA, JV GmbH and KME (with respect to the Aerospace Business), as applicable, in connection with such actions and the preparation of the Form F-4 and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. Promptly after the Form F-4 is declared effective under the Securities Act, SEDA will cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be mailed to the SEDA Shareholders.

(b) Each of PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA, JV GmbH and KME (with respect to the Aerospace Business) shall cooperate and mutually agree upon (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed) any response to comments of the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form F-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment to the Form F-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus filed in response thereto. If PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA, JV GmbH or KME (with respect to the Aerospace Business) becomes aware that any information contained in the Form F-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus shall have become false or misleading in any material respect or that the Form F-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus is required to be amended in order to comply with applicable Law, then (i) such party shall promptly inform the other parties and (ii) PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA and JV GmbH shall cooperate and mutually agree upon (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed) an amendment or supplement to the Form F-4 and Proxy Statement/Prospectus. PubCo and SEDA shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, as so amended or supplemented, to be filed with the SEC and to be disseminated to the holders of SEDA Shares, as applicable, in each case, pursuant to applicable Law and subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and SEDA’s Organizational Documents. Each of PubCo and SEDA shall provide the other parties with copies of any written comments, and shall inform such other parties of any oral comments, that PubCo or SEDA receives from the SEC or its staff with respect to the Form F-4 or Proxy Statement/Prospectus promptly after the receipt of such comments and shall give the other parties, including JV GmbH and KME (with respect to the Aerospace Business), a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on any proposed written or oral responses to such comments prior to responding to the SEC or its staff. Each of PubCo and SEDA shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Form F-4 and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the SEC, to request the effectiveness of the Form F-4 from the SEC as promptly as practicable and to keep the Form F-4 effective through the Closing in order to permit the consummation of the Transactions.

(c) SEDA agrees to include provisions in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and to take reasonable action related thereto, with respect to (i) the adoption and approval of the Business Combination, this Agreement and the Transactions, (ii) the approval of the adoption of the A&R LLCA of Merger Sub, (iii) adopt any such amendments to the Amended and Restated Memorandum and Articles of Association of SEDA as are reasonably necessary to complete the Transactions, including to change the ratio at which SEDA Class B Shares convert to SEDA Class A Shares and (iv) the approval of any other proposals reasonably agreed by SEDA and the Shareholders to be necessary or appropriate in connection with the Transactions (collectively, the “Proposals”). Without the prior written consent of the Shareholders, the Proposals shall be the only matters (other than procedural matters) that SEDA shall propose to be acted on by SEDA Shareholders at the SEDA Meeting.

(d) SEDA shall use reasonable best efforts to, as promptly as practicable (and in any event, within seven (7) Business Days after the SEC Clearance Date), (i) cause the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be disseminated to SEDA Shareholders in compliance with applicable Law, (ii) establish the record date for, duly call, give notice of, convene and hold the SEDA Meeting in accordance with its Organizational Documents, the Cayman Companies Act, and the rules and regulations applicable to the SEC and NYSE for a date no later than thirty (30) days following the SEC Clearance Date and (iii) solicit proxies from the holders of SEDA Shares to vote in favor of each of the Proposals. SEDA shall, through the SEDA Board, recommend to SEDA Shareholders that they approve the Proposals and shall include such recommendation in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus; provided, however, that the SEDA Board may change, withdraw, withhold, qualify or modify, or publicly propose to change, withdraw, withhold, qualify or modify its recommendation (a “Change in Recommendation”) if it determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and/or financial advisors, that a failure to make a Change in Recommendation would reasonably be expected to constitute a breach by the SEDA Board of its fiduciary obligations to the SEDA Shareholders under applicable Law. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 11.03(d), if on a date for which the SEDA Meeting is scheduled, SEDA has not received proxies representing a sufficient number of SEDA Shares to obtain the SEDA Shareholder Approval, whether or not a quorum is present, SEDA shall have the right to make one or more successive postponements or adjournments of the SEDA Meeting; provided that the SEDA Meeting (x) is not postponed or adjourned to a date that is more than forty-five (45) days after the date for which the SEDA Meeting was originally scheduled (excluding any adjournments or postponements required by applicable Law) and (y) is held no later than three (3) Business Days prior to the Termination Date. SEDA acknowledges that its obligations hereunder to furnish the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to the SEDA Shareholders, convene the SEDA Meeting and solicit the SEDA Shareholders as provided hereunder shall apply notwithstanding any Change in Recommendation in accordance with the terms hereof.

(a) During the Interim Period, (i) JV GmbH and the Shareholders shall not take, nor shall they permit any of their Affiliates or Representatives to take, in each case, whether directly or indirectly, any action to solicit, initiate or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or enter into any agreement with, or encourage, or provide information to, any Person (other than PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA and/or any of their Affiliates and Representatives) concerning, relating to or which is intended or is reasonably likely to give rise to or result in any purchase of any equity securities of, or membership interests in, or the issuance and sale of any equity securities of, or membership interests in, PP Holding, JV GmbH or its Subsidiaries (other than any purchases of equity securities by JV GmbH from employees of JV GmbH or its Subsidiaries) or any merger or sale of substantial assets involving the Aerospace Business Assets, PP Holding or JV GmbH or any of its Subsidiaries, in each case, other than the Transactions, a transfer by any Shareholder to any of its Affiliates, or as provided in this Agreement (any such purchase, issuance, sale or merger, an “Acquisition Transaction”). If JV GmbH, the Shareholders or any of their Affiliates or any of their respective Representatives receives any inquiry or proposal regarding an Acquisition Transaction at any time prior to the Closing, then JV GmbH and the Shareholders, as applicable, shall promptly notify such Person indicating only that it is subject to an exclusivity agreement that prohibits providing any information related to or entertaining any proposals or offers or engaging in any negotiations or discussions concerning any Acquisition Transaction and, in such event, JV GmbH or such Shareholder, as applicable, shall also promptly notify SEDA of such facts and circumstances. JV GmbH and the Shareholders shall, and shall cause their Affiliates and Representatives to, immediately cease any and all existing discussions or negotiations with any Person conducted prior to the date hereof with respect to, or which is reasonably likely to give rise to or result in, an Acquisition Transaction.

action to solicit, initiate, continue or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or enter into any agreement with, or encourage, respond, provide information to or commence due diligence with respect to, any Person (other than JV GmbH, PP Holding, the Shareholders and/or any of their Affiliates and Representatives), concerning, relating to or which is intended or reasonably likely to give rise to or result in, any offer, inquiry, proposal or indication of interest, whether written or oral, relating to any Business Combination other than with JV GmbH, the Shareholders and their respective Affiliates and Representatives (a “Business Combination Proposal”). If SEDA or any of its Affiliates or Representatives receives any inquiry or proposal regarding a Business Combination Proposal at any time prior to the Closing, then SEDA shall promptly notify such Person indicating only that it is subject to an exclusivity agreement that prohibits them from providing any information considering such inquiry or proposal and, in such event, SEDA shall also promptly notify JV GmbH and the Shareholders of such facts and circumstances. SEDA shall, and shall cause its Affiliates and Representatives to, immediately cease any and all existing discussions or negotiations with any Person conducted prior to the date hereof with respect to, or which is reasonably likely to give rise to or result in, a Business Combination Proposal. Nothing contained in this Section 11.04(b) shall prohibit SEDA or the SEDA Board or any committee thereof from making any disclosure to the SEDA Shareholders if the SEDA Board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and/or financial advisors, that failure to do so would be inconsistent with its fiduciary obligations under applicable Law.

11.05 Tax Matters.

(a) Transfer Taxes. Subject to Section 11.05(b) below, if the Closing occurs, all transfer, documentary, sales, use, stamp duty, stamp duty reserve tax, registration, value added or other similar Taxes incurred in connection with the Transactions and the admission of the PubCo Shares and SEDA Adjusted Warrants for clearing through DTC (“Transfer Taxes”) shall be borne by PubCo. PubCo shall file, or shall procure that the party required by Law to file files, any necessary Tax Returns with respect to all such Transfer Taxes, and shall timely pay (or cause to be timely paid) to the applicable Governmental Authority such Transfer Taxes. Each party hereto shall file all applicable U.S. federal income Tax Returns on a basis consistent with the Intended Tax Treatment, unless otherwise required pursuant to a determination within the meaning of Section 1313(a) of the Code. Following the Closing, each party hereto shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and will not take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying for the Intended Tax Treatment. The parties hereto intend that, for the purposes of UK taxation on chargeable gains, the disposal of SEDA shares by UK resident SEDA Shareholders on the Merger shall be treated as a reorganization pursuant to and for the purposes of sections 136 and 127 to 131 Taxation of Chargeable Gains Act 1992, and each party hereto shall use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify, and will not take any action, cause any action to be taken, fail to take any action or cause any action to fail to be taken, which action or failure to act could reasonably be expected to prevent the Merger from qualifying for such UK tax treatment. If the SEC requires that a Tax opinion be prepared and submitted with respect to the Tax treatment of the Merger for U.S. federal income tax purposes, SEDA’s counsel shall provide a Tax opinion on the qualification of the Merger under Section 368 of the Code. If the SEC requires that an opinion be prepared and submitted with respect to the Tax treatment of the Transactions for U.S. federal income tax purposes to the Shareholders, the Shareholders shall cause one of their advisors to provide such opinion.

(e) Tax Advice. Each of the parties acknowledges and agrees that it has had the opportunity to obtain independent legal and Tax advice with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (except as expressly provided otherwise in this Agreement) is responsible for paying its own Taxes, including any adverse Tax consequences that may result if the Merger fails to qualify for the Intended Tax Treatment.

(f) PubCo Tax Status. It is the intention of the parties hereto that, from and after the date of this Agreement, PubCo shall be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes. PubCo shall not make an election or take any other action as a result of which PubCo will not be treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

(g) Execution of Documents. Each party to this Agreement shall, and shall cause their respective Subsidiaries to, execute and retain each copy of this Agreement and any ancillary documents thereto outside of the U.K. The parties hereto agree to use their reasonable best efforts to ensure that no U.K. stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax is payable in connection with any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, to the extent permitted by applicable Law.

(b) PubCo, SEDA and the Shareholders shall reasonably cooperate to (i) prepare and make a public announcement regarding the Transactions on the date hereof and (ii) create and implement a communications plan regarding the Transactions (the "Communications Plan") promptly following the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the parties hereto or any of their respective Affiliates will make any public announcement or issue any public communication regarding any of the parties hereto or any of their respective Affiliates, this Agreement or the Transactions or any matter related to the foregoing, without the prior written consent of the Shareholders, in the case of a public announcement by SEDA, or SEDA, in the case of a public announcement by any of the other parties hereto (such consents, in either case, not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), except (i) if such announcement or other communication is required by applicable Law (including pursuant to Securities Laws or the rules of any national securities exchange), in which case the disclosing party shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, first allow such other parties to review such announcement or communication and the opportunity to comment thereon and the disclosing party shall consider such comments in good faith, (ii) to the extent provided for in the Communications Plan, (iii) to the extent such announcements or other communications contain only information previously disclosed in a public statement, press release or other communication approved in accordance with this Section 11.06(b), and (iv) announcements and communications to Governmental Authorities in connection with filings or permits relating to the Transactions required to be made under this Agreement; provided that, any internal announcements to employees of JV GmbH, PP Holding or KME (or their respective Subsidiaries) shall require the prior written consent of JV GmbH, PP Holding or KME, respectively. (a) From and after the Closing Date, PubCo agrees that it shall, to the fullest extent that PubCo is permitted under applicable Law and the New PubCo Articles, indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director and officer of JV GmbH, PP Holding, Merger Sub, PubCo and SEDA and each of their respective Subsidiaries against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any Action, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of or pertaining to matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Closing, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Closing Date (including the advancing of expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Law). Without limiting the foregoing, PubCo shall, to the extent permitted by applicable Law and the New PubCo Articles (i) maintain for a period of not less than six (6) years from the Closing Date provisions in the New PubCo Articles concerning the indemnification and exoneration (including provisions relating to expense advancement) of officers and directors that are no less favorable to those Persons than the provisions of the certificate of incorporation, certificate of formation, bylaws, limited liability company agreement and other organizational documents of JV GmbH, PP Holding, PubCo, Merger Sub, SEDA or their respective Subsidiaries, as applicable, in each case, as of the date hereof and (ii) not amend, repeal or otherwise modify such provisions in any respect that would adversely affect the rights of those Persons thereunder, in each case, except as required by applicable Law, including the CA 2006.

(b) For a period of three (3) years from the Closing Date, PubCo shall, or shall cause one or more of its Subsidiaries to, maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering those Persons who are currently covered by SEDA's or JV GmbH's, PP Holding's or their Subsidiaries' directors' and officers' liability insurance policies, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that the terms of such policies are not less favorable than the terms of such current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies; provided, however, that (i) SEDA or JV GmbH and PP Holding, as applicable, shall cause coverage to be extended under the current directors' and officers' liability insurance by obtaining a customary "tail" policy on terms not less favorable than the terms of such current directors' and officers' liability insurance policies with respect to claims existing or occurring at or prior to the Closing and (ii) if any claim is asserted or made within such policy coverage period, such insurance shall be continued in respect of such claim until the final disposition thereof. All costs associated with such "tail policies" shall be borne by SEDA or JV GmbH and PP Holding, as applicable.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Agreement to the contrary, this Section 11.07 shall survive the Closing indefinitely and shall be binding, jointly and severally, on PubCo and all successors and assigns of PubCo. In the event that PubCo or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other Person and shall not be the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any Person, then, and in each such case, PubCo shall ensure that proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of PubCo shall succeed to the obligations set forth in this Section 11.07.

11.08 DTC Cooperation. Without prejudice to the generality of Section 11.01 and 11.05, PubCo, Merger Sub, JV GmbH, KME and SEDA shall each, and shall each cause their respective Subsidiaries to use reasonable best efforts to, cooperate in the assembly, preparation and filing of any information (and, as needed, to supplement such information) as may be reasonably necessary to obtain as promptly as practicable: (a) confirmation from DTC that the PubCo Shares and SEDA Adjusted Warrants are eligible for clearing through DTC and agreement from DTC to accept the PubCo Shares and SEDA Adjusted Warrants for clearing through DTC in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and such future transactions as may be reasonably foreseeable; and (b) such confirmation or agreement from any other depositary or clearance service as may reasonably be required to enable the PubCo Shares and SEDA Adjusted Warrants to be accepted for clearing through DTC and the PubCo Shares and SEDA

11.09 Post-Closing Cooperation; Further Assurances. Following the Closing, each party hereto shall, on the request of any other party hereto, execute such further documents, and perform such further acts, as may be reasonably necessary or appropriate to give full effect to the allocation of rights, benefits, obligations and liabilities contemplated by this Agreement and the Transactions.

11.10 Delisting and Deregistration. SEDA and PubCo shall take all actions necessary or reasonably requested by another party hereto to cause the SEDA Units and SEDA Class A Shares to be delisted from NYSE (or be succeeded by the PubCo Shares) and to terminate its registration with the SEC pursuant to Sections 12(b), 12(g) and 15(d) of the Exchange Act (or be succeeded by PubCo) as of the Closing Date.

11.11 Registration Rights Agreement Term Sheet and Lock-Up Agreement. On or prior to the Closing Date, (i) PubCo, SEDA and KME shall enter into a Registration Rights Agreement in a form to be agreed prior to Closing and substantially on the terms contained in the Registration Rights Agreement Term Sheet and (ii) Sponsor and PubCo shall, and KME shall cause KME Special to, enter into the Lock-Up Agreement.

11.12 Interim Period Agreements. Prior to the Closing, the Shareholders and SEDA shall reasonably cooperate to draft the following agreements and documents (as applicable) (i) the New PubCo Articles, (ii) the Plan of Merger, and (iii) the A&R LLCA of Merger Sub, each to be entered into at Closing.

11.13 Subscription Agreements. To the extent any Subscription Agreements are entered into prior to the Closing, SEDA and PubCo shall each use its reasonable best efforts to satisfy the conditions of any PIPE Investors closing obligations contained in any such Subscription Agreements, and consummate the transactions contemplated thereby. SEDA and PubCo shall not terminate, amend or waive in any manner adverse to SEDA or PubCo, any Subscription Agreements without SEDA's and each of the Shareholder's prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), and PubCo shall, except with SEDA's and each of the Shareholders' prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), use its best efforts to enforce any Subscription Agreements in accordance with its terms. In the event that there is an actual or threatened material breach or default by a PIPE Investor under a Subscription Agreement, or SEDA reasonably believes in good faith that such PIPE Investor otherwise is not willing or able to consummate the transactions contemplated thereby upon the satisfaction of the conditions of such PIPE Investor's closing obligations thereunder, then notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, except with SEDA's and each Shareholder's prior written consent, SEDA and PubCo shall use their applicable reasonable best efforts to cause SEDA and PubCo to enter into and consummate replacement agreements for the PIPE Investment, which agreements shall become Subscription Agreements for purposes of this Agreement and included as part of the PIPE Investment, and SEDA, PubCo and JV GmbH shall, and shall cause their respective Representatives to, reasonably cooperate with SEDA, PubCo and their respective Representatives in connection with such replacement PIPE Investment and use their respective commercially reasonable efforts to cause such replacement PIPE Investment to occur (including having SEDA's or JV GmbH's (or any of its Subsidiary's) senior management participate in any investor meetings and roadshows as reasonably requested by SEDA).

11.14 Trust Account and Other Closing Payments. Prior to or at the Closing (subject to the satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in Article XII), SEDA and PubCo shall make appropriate arrangements to cause the funds in the Trust Account to be disbursed in accordance with the Trust Agreement and the net proceeds of the Financing, if any, to be applied, in each case, for the following: (a) the redemption of any SEDA Shares; (b) the payment of any cash consideration due at Closing; (c) the payment of Transaction Expenses pursuant to Section 14.07; and (d) the balance of the assets in the Trust Account and net proceeds of the Financing, if any, after payment of the amounts required under the foregoing clauses (a), (b) and (c), to be disbursed to PubCo for working capital and general corporate purposes.

11.15 Post-Closing Board of Directors. The parties shall take all necessary action, including causing the directors of PubCo to resign, so that effective as of the Closing, PubCo's board of directors (the "Post-Closing PubCo Board") will consist of seven (7) natural Persons. Two (2) members of the Post-Closing PubCo Board shall be identified by SEDA and five (5) members of the Post-Closing PubCo Board shall be identified by KME, and the parties shall take all necessary action to designate and appoint such individuals to the Post-Closing PubCo Board; provided that the parties hereto shall ensure that the composition of the Post-Closing PubCo Board satisfies the applicable requirements for (a) PubCo to qualify as a "foreign private issuer" (as defined in the Securities Act), (b) PubCo to be solely tax resident in the U.K., and (c) the Takeover Code to not apply.

11.16 Stock Exchange Listing. PubCo shall apply for, and shall use reasonable best efforts to cause, the PubCo Shares and SEDA Adjusted Warrants to be issued in connection with the Transactions to be approved for, listing on an Approved Stock Exchange and accepted for clearance by DTC as promptly as practicable following the issuance thereof, subject to official notice of issuance, prior to the Closing Date.

11.17 Assignment and Assumption of Warrant Agreement. Immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time, PubCo and SEDA shall, on terms to be approved in writing by the Shareholders, (a) enter into an assignment and assumption agreement pursuant to which, at the Merger Effective Time, SEDA will assign to PubCo, and PubCo will assume, all of its rights, interests, and obligations in and under the Warrant Agreement, and (b) effective as of the Merger Effective Time, amend any terms in the Warrant Agreement relating to the entitlement of each warrant holder to purchase SEDA Class A Shares to instead refer to PubCo Shares, and at no point in time shall any warrant holder be entitled to purchase any shares of Merger Sub, and to further provide that no warrant holder shall be entitled to subscribe for shares in PubCo for an amount less than the par value of any such share) (the "Assignment and Assumption Agreement"). Certificates representing the SEDA Warrants need not be surrendered and exchanged because of adjustments made pursuant to this Section 11.17; provided, however, that any holder of SEDA Warrants may at any time surrender to PubCo certificate(s) representing such SEDA Warrants and request replacement certificates representing the SEDA Adjusted Warrants received in exchange therefor, which shall not affect the interest of any such warrant holders. PubCo shall issue any such replacement certificates representing SEDA Adjusted Warrants within ten (10) Business Days of its receipt of a written request from the holder of a SEDA Warrant.

11.18 Requisite SEDA Warrantholder Approval. As promptly as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement, SEDA shall, in accordance with the terms and pursuant to the documentation and timing to be mutually agreed upon by SEDA and the Shareholders (such agreement not to be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed by any of the Parties), solicit the Requisite SEDA Warrantholder Approval and exercise reasonable best efforts to obtain the Requisite SEDA Warrantholder Approval. The Shareholders shall reasonably cooperate in connection with obtaining such Requisite SEDA Warrantholder Approval.

(a) Representations and Warranties.

(i) Each of the representations and warranties of (A) SEDA contained in this Agreement (other than the representations and warranties of SEDA contained in Section 7.01(b) (Corporate Organization), Section 7.09(f) (Business Activities; Absence of Changes) and Sections 7.14(c) and (d) (Capitalization)) and (B) of PubCo and Merger Sub contained in the first and second sentences of Section 8.01 (Corporate Organization), the first sentence of Section 8.02 (Due Authorization), Section 8.05 (Broker's Fees) and the first sentence of Section 8.07 (Capitalization) (in each case, without giving any effect to

121

12.04 Frustration of Closing Conditions. None of PubCo, SEDA, Merger Sub, the Shareholders or JV GmbH may rely on the failure of any condition set forth in this Article XII to be satisfied if such failure was caused by such party's failure to act in good faith or to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Closing to occur, as required by Section 11.01.

ARTICLE XIII

TERMINATION/EFFECTIVENESS

13.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated and the Transactions abandoned:

(a) by written consent of SEDA and the Shareholders;

(b) prior to the Closing, by written notice to each of the Shareholders from SEDA if (i) there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of JV GmbH, KME, or Paragon set forth in this Agreement, such that the conditions specified in Section 12.02(a) or Section 12.02(b) would not be capable of being satisfied at the Closing (a "Terminating Target Breach"), except that, if such Terminating Target Breach is curable by JV GmbH, KME, or Paragon, as the case may be, through the exercise of its reasonable best efforts, then, for a period of up to forty-five (45) days (or any shorter period of time that remains between the date SEDA provides written notice of such violation or breach and the Termination Date) after receipt by JV GmbH, KME, or Paragon, as the case may be, of notice from SEDA of such breach (the "Target Cure Period"), such termination shall not be effective, and such termination shall become effective only if the Terminating Target Breach is not cured within the Target Cure Period, (ii) the consummation of the Transactions is permanently enjoined or prohibited by the terms of a final, non-appealable Governmental Order or a statute, rule or regulation, or (iii) a CFIUS Denial has occurred; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under subsections (i) or (ii) shall not be available if SEDA's failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the primary cause of, or primarily resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or before such date;

(c) prior to the Closing, by written notice to SEDA from the Shareholders if (i) there is any breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of SEDA, PubCo or Merger Sub set forth in this Agreement, such that the conditions specified in Section 12.03(a) or Section 12.03(b) would not be satisfied at the Closing (a "Terminating SEDA Breach"), except that, if any such Terminating SEDA Breach is curable by SEDA, PubCo or Merger Sub through the exercise of its reasonable best efforts, then, for a period of up to forty-five (45) days (or any shorter period of time that remains between the date the Shareholders provided written notice of such violation or breach and the Termination Date) after receipt by SEDA, PubCo or Merger Sub of notice from the Shareholders of such breach (the "SEDA Cure Period"), such termination shall not be effective, and such termination shall become effective only if the Terminating SEDA Breach is not cured within the SEDA Cure Period, (ii) the consummation of the Transactions is permanently enjoined or prohibited by the terms of a final, non-appealable Governmental Order or a statute, rule or regulation, or (iii) a CFIUS Denial has occurred; provided that the right to terminate this Agreement under subsections (i) and (ii) shall not be available if JV GmbH or the Shareholders' failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement has been the primary cause of, or primarily resulted in, the failure of the Closing to occur on or before such date; or

(d) by written notice from any party hereto to all of the other parties if this Agreement shall fail to receive the SEDA Shareholder Approval at the SEDA Meeting (subject to any adjournment or recess of the meeting).

Any party hereto terminating this Agreement pursuant to this Section 13.01 shall give written notice of such termination to each other party hereto in accordance with this Agreement specifying the provision or provisions hereof pursuant to which such termination is being effected.

13.02 Automatic Termination. This Agreement shall automatically terminate and the Transactions shall be abandoned if the Closing has not occurred on or before July 2, 2024 (or such later date as agreed to in writing between SEDA and the Shareholders) (the "Termination Date").

13.03 Effect of Termination. Except as otherwise set forth in this Section 13.03 or Section 14.15, in the event of the termination of this Agreement pursuant to Section 13.01 or Section 13.02, this Agreement shall forthwith become void and have no effect, without any liability on the part of any party hereto or its respective Affiliates, officers, directors or stockholders, other than liability of any party hereto for any breach of this Agreement by such party occurring prior to such termination. The provisions of Section 9.06, this Section 13.03 and Sections 14.02, 14.03, 14.04, 14.07, 14.08, 14.14, 14.16 and 14.18 (collectively, the "Surviving Provisions") and the Confidentiality Agreement, and any other Section or Article of this Agreement referenced in the Surviving Provisions which are required to survive in order to give appropriate effect to the Surviving Provisions, shall in each case survive any termination of this Agreement.

ARTICLE XIV

MISCELLANEOUS

14.01 Waiver. Except as set forth in Section 13.02, no provision of this Agreement may be waived unless such waiver is in writing and signed by or on behalf of the party hereto or parties granting such waiver. No failure or delay of any party hereto in exercising any right or remedy hereunder shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such right or power, or any course of conduct, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power.

14.02 Notices. All notices and other communications among the parties hereto shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been duly given (i) when delivered in person, (ii) when delivered by FedEx or other nationally recognized overnight delivery service or (iii) when e-mailed during normal business hours (and otherwise as of the immediately following Business Day), addressed as follows:

Nothing expressed or implied in this Agreement is intended or shall be construed to confer upon or give any Person, other than the parties hereto, any right or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, (a) in the event the Closing occurs, the current and former officers and directors of JV GmbH and SEDA (and their successors, heirs and representatives) are intended third-party beneficiaries of, and may enforce, Section 11.07, and (b) the past, present and future directors, officers, employees, incorporators, members, partners, stockholders, Affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors and representatives of the parties hereto, and any Affiliate of any of the foregoing (and their successors, heirs and representatives), are intended third-party beneficiaries of, and may enforce, Sections 14.16 and 14.17.

14.05 No Fiduciary Duty. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that nothing in this Agreement shall create a fiduciary duty of Rothschild & Co US Inc or any party hereto to any other party hereto.

14.06 Investment Banking Services. 14.08 Governing Law. This Agreement, and all claims or causes of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the Transactions, shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to principles or rules of conflict of laws to the extent such principles or rules would require or permit the application of Laws of another jurisdiction.

14.09 Headings; Counterparts. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only and shall not be considered a part of or affect the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement. All references herein to Schedules and Exhibits shall be deemed references to such parts of this Agreement, unless the context shall otherwise require. Any disclosure made by a party hereto in the Schedules with reference to any section or schedule of this Agreement shall be deemed to be a disclosure with respect to all other sections or schedules to which such disclosure may apply solely to the extent the relevance of such disclosure is reasonably apparent on the face of the disclosure in such Schedule. Certain information set forth in the Schedules is included solely for informational purposes and may not be required to be disclosed pursuant to this Agreement. The disclosure of any information shall not be deemed to constitute an acknowledgment that such information is required to be disclosed in connection with the representations and warranties made in this Agreement, nor shall such information be deemed to establish a standard of materiality.

This Agreement (together with the Schedules and Exhibits to this Agreement) and the Confidentiality Agreement, constitute the entire agreement among the parties relating to the Transactions and supersede any other agreements, whether written or oral, that may have been made or entered into by or among any of the parties hereto or any of their respective Subsidiaries relating to the Transactions. 127 in the same manner as this Agreement and which makes reference to this Agreement. The approval of this Agreement by the stockholders of any of the parties hereto shall not restrict the ability of the board of directors of any of the parties hereto to terminate this Agreement in accordance with Section 13.01 or to cause such party to enter into an amendment to this Agreement pursuant to this Section 14.12 or to waive any term or condition hereof pursuant to Section 14.01, and the parties hereto may amend or terminate this Agreement (or waive any term or condition hereof) in accordance with the terms of this Agreement whether before or after the approval of this Agreement by the stockholders of any party hereto.

14.13 Severability. If any provision of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable by any court of competent jurisdiction, the other provisions of this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. The parties hereto further agree that if any provision contained herein is, to any extent, held invalid or unenforceable in any respect under the Laws governing this Agreement, the remaining provisions of this Agreement shall be reformed, construed and enforced to the fullest extent permitted by Law and to the extent necessary to give effect to the intent of the parties hereto.

Any Action based upon, arising out of or related to this Agreement or the Transactions may be brought in federal and state courts located in the State of Delaware, and each of the parties hereto irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of each such court in any such Action, waives any objection it may now or hereafter have to personal jurisdiction, venue or to convenience of forum, agrees that all claims in respect of the Action shall be heard and determined only in any such court, and agrees not to bring any Action arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the Transactions in any other court. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to affect the right of any party hereto to serve process in any manner permitted by Law or to commence legal proceedings or otherwise proceed against any other party hereto in any other jurisdiction, in each case, to enforce judgments obtained in any Action brought pursuant to this Section 14.14. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES ANY AND ALL RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY ACTION BASED UPON, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY.

14.15 Enforcement

(a) The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage, for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that the parties hereto do not perform their obligations under the provisions of this Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of them hereunder to consummate this Agreement) in accordance with its specified terms or otherwise breach such provisions. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that (a) each party hereto shall be entitled to an injunction, specific performance, or other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof, without proof of damages, prior to the valid termination of this Agreement in accordance with Section 13.01 or Section 13.02, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled under this Agreement, and (b) the right of specific enforcement is an integral part of the Transactions and without that right, none of the parties hereto would have entered into this Agreement. Each party hereto agrees that it will not oppose the granting of specific performance and other equitable relief on the basis that the other parties hereto have an adequate remedy at Law or that an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at Law or equity. The parties hereto acknowledge and agree that any party hereto seeking an injunction to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in accordance with this Section 14.15 shall not be required to provide any bond or other security in connection with any such injunction.

(b) Each party hereto further agrees that (i) by seeking the remedies provided for in this Section 14.15, a party shall not in any respect waive its right to seek any other form of relief that may be available to such party under this Agreement in the event that this Agreement has been terminated or in the event that the remedies provided for in this Section 14.15 are not available or otherwise are not granted, and (ii) nothing set forth in this Section 14.15 shall require any party to institute any action or proceeding for (or limit any party's right to institute any Action or proceeding for) specific performance under this Section 14.15 prior to or as a condition to exercising any termination right under Section 13.01, nor shall the commencement of any Action or proceeding pursuant to this Section 14.15 or anything set forth in this Section 14.15 restrict or limit any party's right to terminate this Agreement in accordance with the terms of Section 13.01 or to pursue any other remedies under this Agreement that may be available then or thereafter.

14.16 Non-Recourse. This Agreement may only be enforced against, and any claim or cause of action based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the Transactions may only be brought against, the entities that are expressly named as parties hereto and then only with respect to the specific obligations set forth herein with respect to such party. Except that with respect to a party hereto (and then only to the extent of the specific obligations undertaken by such party), (a) no past, present or future director, officer, employee, incorporator, member, partner, stockholder, Affiliate, agent, attorney, advisor or representative or Affiliate of any party hereto and (b) no past, present or future director, officer, employee, incorporator, member, partner, stockholder, Affiliate, agent, attorney, advisor or representative or Affiliate of any of the foregoing shall have any liability (whether in contract, tort, equity or otherwise) for any one or more of the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations or liabilities of any one or more of the parties under this Agreement of or for any claim based on, arising out of, or related to this Agreement or the Transactions.

14.17 Nonsurvival of Representations, Warranties and Covenants. None of the representations, warranties, covenants, obligations or other agreements in this Agreement or in any certificate, statement or instrument delivered pursuant to this Agreement, including any rights arising out of any breach of such representations, warranties, covenants, obligations, agreements and other provisions, shall survive the Closing, and all such representations, warranties, covenants, obligations and other agreements shall terminate and expire upon the occurrence of the Closing (and there shall be no liability after the Closing in respect thereof), except for (a) those covenants and agreements contained herein that by their terms expressly apply in whole or in part after the Closing or termination of this Agreement, including Sections 2.13 (which survives following the Closing but will terminate immediately upon termination of this Agreement), 11.05 to 11.07 (to the extent such provisions are expressed to apply after the Closing or termination of this Agreement) and then only with respect to any breaches occurring after the Closing, (b) Section 11.05(a) and (c) this Article XIV. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing herein shall restrict any Action or liability in the case of Fraud.

The SEDA Representative shall act for each of SEDA and the SEDA Shareholders on all matters set forth herein in the manner the SEDA Representative believes to be in the best interest of SEDA and the SEDA Shareholders, collectively, but the SEDA Representative shall not be responsible to any of SEDA or any of the SEDA Shareholders for any loss or damage any of SEDA or any of the SEDA Shareholders may suffer by reason of the performance by the SEDA Representative of such SEDA Representative's duties hereunder.

(c) SEDA, as authorized by the SEDA Board and on behalf of the SEDA Shareholders, hereby expressly acknowledges and agrees that the SEDA Representative is authorized to act on behalf of SEDA and the SEDA Shareholders notwithstanding any dispute or disagreement among SEDA and the SEDA Shareholders, and that any Person shall be entitled to rely on any and all action taken by the SEDA Representative hereunder without liability to, or obligation to inquire of, SEDA or the SEDA Shareholders. In the event the SEDA Representative resigns or ceases to function in such capacity for any reason whatsoever, then the successor of the SEDA Representative shall be the Person, if any, the SEDA Board unanimously approves and appoints.

This Agreement is meant to implement the BCA. In the event of any contradictions or conflicts with the BCA, the BCA shall prevail to the maximum extent legally possible.

3. Sold Contracts

3.1 Sale of the Sold Contracts

- (a) Each Seller hereby sells to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser hereby purchases from each Seller, by way of assumption of contract with discharging effect for the respective Seller for the future (im Wege der Vertragsübernahme mit befreiender Wirkung für die Zukunft) as further set out in this Agreement and with economic effect as of the Closing Date, such contracts listed in Schedule 5.03(b) of the KME Disclosure Schedules whose contractual obligations have not been completely fulfilled as of the Closing Date (the “Sold Contracts”).
- (b) The Purchaser does not assume any contractual relationships other than the Sold Contracts, and does not assume any of the Sellers’ liabilities and obligations incurred in connection with the Sold Contracts before the Closing Date. In the case that a liability or contingent liability in relation to third parties transfers to the Purchaser by operation of law (e.g. pursuant to Section 25 of the German Commercial Code (HGB)), as between the Parties, the respective Seller shall satisfy such transferring liability or contingent liability if and to the extent the Purchaser has not explicitly accepted the respective liability or contingent liability, and the Seller shall indemnify the Purchaser against any claims or Losses arising from such transferring liability or contingent liability.

3.2 Transfer and Assignment of the Sold Contracts

- (a) Subject to the fulfillment or waiver, as the case may be, of the Closing Actions, each Seller hereby transfers and assigns with effect as of the Closing Date to the Purchaser, who hereby accepts such transfer and assignment subject to the provisions set forth in Section 3.1, all of the Sold Contracts to which it is a party.
- (b) As between the Parties, all rights and claims resulting from the Sold Contracts to the extent to be transferred hereunder shall, irrespective of whether the consent of the relevant Counterparty to the assignment of the respective Sold Contract has been obtained, as of and from the Closing Date, economically vest in the Purchaser.
- (c) Should any Counterparty refuse prior to the Closing Date to grant its consent to the assignment of the relevant Sold Contract, the relevant Seller shall put the Purchaser, to the extent legally possible, economically in a position (on an after Tax basis) as if the assignment of the relevant Sold Contract by the respective Seller to the Purchaser would have been effected as of the Closing Date, including by way of sub-licensing, sub-contracting or similar arrangement to the Purchaser providing that any enforcement by the Sellers of any rights under the relevant Sold Contract shall be for the benefit and account of the Purchaser; provided that the Purchaser agreed in writing to indemnify the respective Seller on terms mutually agreeable to the Purchaser and relevant Seller for any payments to be made by the Seller under any such Sold Contract after the Closing Date. The respective Seller shall comply with the Purchaser’s lawful and reasonable instructions regarding the exercise of any rights under such Sold Contract, provided that the respective Seller shall only be liable for acting with gross negligence (grobe Fahrlässigkeit) or intent (vorsätzlich) when holding the Sold Contracts for the account of the Purchaser. For the avoidance of doubt, liabilities arising out of the continuation of the Sold Contract in accordance with this Section 3.2(c) shall not be borne by the Sellers.
- (d) Any payments or other performances by the Counterparties made under the Sold Contracts and any offers, orders, requests and other communication relating to any Sold Contract or otherwise to the Specialty Aerospace Business, received by the Sellers after the Closing Date shall be forwarded to the Purchaser without undue delay or deductions if and to the extent the payments or other performances relate to products delivered or services rendered after the Closing Date.

3.3 Hand-Over of Documentation

All documentation and other materials constituting, or relating to, the Sold Contracts, which is (i) in the possession or under control of each Seller and (ii) reasonably necessary for the execution of a Sold Contract, and which has not already been made available to the Purchaser shall be handed over or otherwise be made available by each Seller to the Purchaser on the Closing Date.

4. Aerospace Employees

4.1 Transfer of Employees

- (a) Seller 1 and the Purchaser are aware that the sale and transfer of the Sold Business pursuant to this Agreement constitutes a relevant transfer of a business operation (Betriebsübergang) pursuant to Section 613a of the German Civil Code (BGB). Accordingly, the employment relationships and agreements (including all claims and liabilities) of all Aerospace Employees will transfer to the Purchaser by operation of German law subject to, and in accordance with, the regime of Section 613a of the German Civil Code (BGB) unless an employee objects to such transfer in accordance with Section 613a para. 6 of the German Civil Code (BGB). An anonymized list of the Aerospace Employees, setting forth, as of the date hereof, staff number, service date for recognition of service years, and actual total target salary (Jahreszieleinkommen) is contained in Schedule 5.03(b) of the KME Disclosure Schedules.
- (b) All liabilities, including for payment of the monthly salary payments including associated labor costs (Lohnnebenkosten), in relation to the Transferred Employees attributable to the time prior to the Closing Date shall be borne by Seller 1 and Seller 1 shall indemnify the Purchaser accordingly. All liabilities, including for payment of the monthly salary payments including associated labor costs (Lohnnebenkosten), in relation to the Transferred Employees attributable to the time after the Closing Date shall be borne by the Purchaser and the Purchaser shall indemnify the Seller 1 accordingly. For the avoidance of doubt, open holiday entitlements, gratification – if any – and time accounts shall be assumed by the Purchaser without delimitation to the Closing Date.

4.2 Employee Files

Seller 1 shall without undue delay on the Closing Date deliver to the Purchaser the personnel files relating to the Transferred Employees. Seller 1 shall, subject to applicable law, upon the Purchaser’s reasonable request, provide the Purchaser with information on every Aerospace Employee in order to allow for the Purchasers’ preparation for the onboarding and integration of the Transferred Employees.

4.3 Time-Bar

Any payment claims of the Sellers under this Section 4 shall become time-barred (Verjährung) five (5) years after the date hereof but not earlier than one (1) year after the date any claims of the Aerospace Employees for continued employment by Seller 1 become time-barred (Verjährung).

5. Know-How

5.1 Core Know-How Transfer

Subject to the fulfillment or waiver, as the case may be, of the Closing Actions, each Seller hereby sells and assigns, or shall procure the sale and assignment, to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser hereby purchases and accepts such assignment, with economic effect as of the Closing Date, all Know-How exclusively or primarily relating to the Specialty Aerospace Business that is used or held by the Sellers and their Subsidiaries ("Core Know-How").

5.2 Core Know-How License

To the extent that the aforementioned assignment of Core Know-How is legally not possible, each Seller hereby grants, or shall procure for, the Purchaser an all-embracing, exclusive, unrestricted, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, worldwide, transferable, sublicensable (through multiple tiers) right to use and exploit all Core Know-How. The aforementioned granting of rights encompasses all pecuniary rights, including the right to use any works, which are based on or embodying the Core Know-How.

5.3 License to Sellers

The Purchaser hereby grants each Seller a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, non-transferable, non-sublicensable, worldwide license to use the Core Know-How primarily relating to the Specialty Aerospace Business solely to (i) manufacture products and make third-party sales of such products, and (ii) provide customer training and maintenance services, in each case unrelated to the Specialty Aerospace Business.

5.4 Other Know-How License

Each Seller hereby sells and grants, or shall procure the sale and grant, to the Purchaser, and the Purchaser hereby purchases and accepts such grant, with economic effect as of the Closing Date, a non-exclusive, unrestricted, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, worldwide, transferable, sublicensable (through multiple tiers) right to use and commercially exploit all Know-How which is required for the conduct of the Specialty Aerospace Business that is used or held by the Sellers and their Subsidiaries, except for Core Know-How ("Other Know-How", and together with Core Know-How, the "Aerospace Know-How").

5.5 Hand-over of Documentation

All documentation and other materials embodying Aerospace Know-How (if any), which is (i) in the possession or under control of each Seller and (ii) reasonably necessary for using or otherwise commercially exploiting the Aerospace Know-How, shall be handed over by each Seller to the Purchaser on the Closing Date as:

- (a) in relation to Core Know-How, the original or, where it is not technically feasible to provide the original, a copy or by providing access to electronic documents. Following the Closing Date, the Sellers shall cease all exploitation of the Core-Know How in relation to the Specialty Aerospace Business and other materials embodying the Core Know-How. The Sellers shall provide to the Purchaser written confirmation that the Sellers have complied with this Section 5.5(a); and
- (b) in relation to Other Know-How, the original, a copy or by providing access to electronic documents, in each case, the ownership of handed over documentation and other materials vests in the Purchaser.

6. Taxes

6.1 Pre-Closing Taxes

- (a) The Sellers shall indemnify and hold the Purchaser harmless from and against any secondary liabilities for Taxes under Section 75 German General Tax Code (AO) or under any other statutory provision (including, e.g., Sec. 25 German Commercial Code (HGB)) which are levied against the Purchaser, and which are attributable to the Sold Business for the period up to and including the Closing Date ("Pre-Closing Taxes"); provided however, that foregoing shall not apply to the extent that Pre-Closing Taxes:

- (A) have been paid or otherwise settled by the Sellers;
 - (B) result from any future measures or transactions undertaken or caused by the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates after the Closing Date;
 - (C) correspond to any Tax advantages of the Purchaser or any of its Affiliates as from and after the Closing Date, applying a discount rate of three percent (3%) for the period until the time on which the respective benefit is likely to occur (for the avoidance of doubt, any step up in the Tax basis in relation to the Sold Business shall not be treated as a Tax advantage for purpose of this Section 6.1(a)(C)); or
 - (D) were caused by the Purchaser's failure to satisfy any of its obligations under this Section 6, unless and to the extent the Purchaser proves (darlegen und beweisen) that the relevant Taxes were not increased thereby.
- (b) The Purchaser shall notify the competent Tax Authority about the transfer of the Sold Business (Betriebsübergang) within one (1) month after the Closing Date.

- (c) With respect to any Pre-Closing Taxes, the Purchaser shall (i) deliver to the respective Seller without undue delay a copy of the respective Tax assessment notice (Steuerbescheid) or liability claim notice (Haftungsbescheid), (ii) file in due course a legal objection notice upon the respective Seller's request and at the respective Seller's costs, and (iii) conduct all legal remedy procedures as instructed by the respective Seller and at the respective Seller's costs. The Sellers shall pay the Pre-Closing Taxes within ten (10) Business Days after the later of (x) receipt of the copy of the respective Tax assessment notice or liability claim notice and (y) five (5) Business Days prior to the due date of the respective Tax liabilities.
- (d) The Purchaser agrees to fully cooperate with the Sellers and at Sellers' costs in any tax procedure regarding the Pre-Closing Taxes, in particular but not limited to challenge and to litigate any Tax assessment notice or other decision of a Tax Authority upon Sellers' request and according to the Sellers' lawful and reasonable instructions.
- (e) The Purchaser's claims under Section 6.1(a) shall become time-barred (Ausschlussfrist) thirteen (13) months after the Closing Date.

- 13 -

7. Closing

7.1 Date of Closing

The closing (the "Closing") shall take place on the date of this Agreement ("Closing Date").

7.2 Closing Actions

At Closing, the Parties shall take or cause the following actions to be taken, in the following order:

- (a) Each Seller shall fulfill its obligation set forth in Sections 3.3, 4.2 and 5.5(a); and
- (b) The Purchaser shall issue the APA Vendor Loan to the Sellers.

(the "Closing Actions"). Promptly after the performance of the Closing Actions, the Parties shall execute a closing memorandum substantially in form and substance as attached hereto as Exhibit 7.2.

7.3 Obligation to Close

Subject to the respective other Party's compliance with Section 7.2, no Party shall be entitled to refuse or to delay the occurrence of the Closing. The applicability of Sections 320 and 446 of the German Civil Code (BGB) is expressly excluded.

8. Purchase Price Matters

8.1 Purchase Price

- (a) The aggregate purchase price owed by the Purchaser to the Sellers as consideration for the sale and transfer of the Sold Business (the "Purchase Price") shall consist of the following:

- 14 -

- (b) The Sellers hereby agree that the Purchaser's obligation to pay the Purchase Price will be discharged in full by the issuance by the Purchaser to the Sellers of the APA Vendor Loan (as defined in the BCA and attached hereto as Exhibit 8.1(b)) which shall be settled, assigned, novated or contributed as set forth in the definitive agreements governing the Business Combination.

8.2 Value-Added Tax

- (a) The Parties take the view that the intended sale and transfer of the Sold Business under this Agreement constitutes a sale of a going concern (Geschäftsveräußerung im Ganzen) for VAT purposes according to Section 1 para. 1a of the German value-added tax code (Umsatzsteuergesetz). Accordingly, the Parties take the view that the sale and transfer of the Sold Business is not subject to VAT. The Parties shall take all reasonable steps required to treat the transfer of the Sold Business as a sale of a going concern for VAT purposes. In particular, the Parties warrant and undertake that they shall not waive any available exemption from VAT without the prior written consent of the other Party.
- (b) In the event that a relevant Tax Authority determines that the sale and transfer of the Sold Business is subject to VAT and VAT is due by the Sellers (no reverse charge), the respective VAT shall be added as additional consideration to the Purchase Price. The confirmation from the relevant Tax Authority shall be delivered by the Sellers as soon as possible after receipt from such Tax Authority. VAT shall be paid by the Purchaser to the Sellers within ten (10) Business Days of the receipt by Purchaser of a valid invoice in compliance with applicable VAT laws. The Parties will cooperate in order to mitigate any liquidity disadvantages, e.g. by allowing an assignment of the VAT claim in lieu (im Erfüllungshalber) of a cash payment.

9. Representations and Warranties of the Sellers

9.1 Representations

The Sellers hereby represent and warrant to the Purchaser by way of an independent guarantee (Section 311 para. 1 of the German Civil Code (BGB)) that the following statements set forth in Section 9.2 (the "Representations"), are true and correct;

in each case provided that:

- (a) the scope and content of each Representation contained in this Section 9 as well as the Sellers' liability arising therefrom shall be conclusively (abschließend) defined by the provisions of this Agreement (including the limitations on Purchaser's rights and remedies set forth in Section 10 below), which shall form an integral part of the Representations;

(b) the Representations refer to the Closing Date.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Parties agree that the Representations do not constitute a guarantee (Garantie für die Beschaffenheit der Sache) within the meaning of Sections 443 and 444 of the German Civil Code (BGB). As a precaution, the Purchaser herewith expressly waives (i) the assertion of any statutory claims against the Sellers pursuant to Section 434 et seq. of the German Civil Code (BGB) and (ii) any recourse to Section 444 of the German Civil Code (BGB).

9.2 Joint and Several Liability

The Sellers shall be jointly and severally liable for any of their obligations under this Agreement (Gesamtschuldnerschaft).

9.3 Representations of Sellers

- (a) Seller 1 is a limited liability company validly incorporated and organized under the laws of Germany. Seller 2 is a limited liability company validly incorporated and organized under the laws of Germany. Seller 3 is a corporation validly incorporated and organized under the laws of the State of Illinois.
- (b) No bankruptcy or judicial composition proceedings concerning any of the Sellers have been applied for and no circumstances exist which would require the application for any bankruptcy or judicial composition proceedings concerning a Seller or justify any action of avoidance of this Agreement.
- (c) Each Seller has the absolute and unrestricted right, power, authority and capacity to execute this Agreement.
- (d) This Agreement constitutes the legal, valid and binding obligation of each Seller, enforceable under applicable laws against each Seller in accordance with its terms, and to perform its obligations under this Agreement, which actions have been duly authorized and approved by all necessary corporate actions of each Seller. Neither the conclusion nor the consummation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein will directly or indirectly violate the Sellers' certificates of incorporation, articles of association or by-laws, as applicable, or require the consent of, or notice be given to, any third party except as may be required for the transfer of the Sold Contracts in accordance with Section 3.2(c) of this Agreement.

10. Indemnification by the Sellers

10.1 Indemnification

- (a) Pursuant to this Section 10.1, the respective Seller shall indemnify the Purchaser for Losses resulting from any breach of a Representation made by it or any other of its obligations hereunder.
- (b) If and to the extent the respective Seller is subject to an indemnification obligation for Losses, the respective Seller shall put the Purchaser into the position it would have been in had such breaches that caused such Losses not occurred (Naturalrestitution). If and to the extent the respective Seller fails to comply with the foregoing indemnification obligation (Naturalrestitution) within forty-five (45) days after the Purchaser duly notifies the respective Seller of any breach giving rise to an indemnification obligation in accordance with Section 10.5 below, or if and to the extent the respective Seller refuses to comply with the foregoing indemnification obligation or if such indemnification is not possible, the Purchaser shall be entitled to claim monetary compensation only from the respective Seller for any Losses resulting from any such breach. For the avoidance of doubt, there shall be no double-counting of Losses.
- (c) The German law legal principles regarding the calculation of damages, the mitigation of damages and the off-setting of damages by advantages (including advantages of and for the Purchaser) due to the damaging event (Schadensberechnung, Schadensminderung, Vorteilsausgleich) pursuant to Sec. 249 et seqq. of the German Civil Code (BGB) shall apply mutatis mutandis to all damage claims of the Purchaser under or in connection with this Agreement.

10.2 Limitations of Liability

The aggregate maximum liability of the respective Seller for all claims under or in connection with this Agreement shall be limited to the Purchase Price allocated to it.

10.3 Time-Limitation

Unless specifically provided for otherwise herein,

- (a) all claims of the Purchaser against the respective Seller arising in relation to the performance claims (Erfüllungsansprüche) and under or in connection with the Representations contained in Sections 9.3 shall expire (Ausschlussfrist) four (4) years after the Closing Date; and
- (b) all other claims of a Party under or in connection with this Agreement, but other than in relation to Taxes, shall expire (Ausschlussfrist) on June 1, 2025.

(each of such expiry dates, an "End Date"); provided that only if, at any time prior to the respective End Date, the respective Party delivered to the other Party a due notification of a specified claim, then the time-limitation (Ausschlussfrist) in respect of such claim so asserted shall be suspended (gehemmt) until such time as such claim is finally resolved by way of a final and binding arbitration award, written compromise or written unilateral acknowledgement; provided, however, that the respective Party asserts such timely notified claim in arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Section 13.9 at the latest six (6) months after its notification which suspended the time-limitation (Ausschlussfrist). Section 203 of the German Civil Code (BGB) and its underlying principles shall not apply.

10.4 Assignment of Claims

In the event and to the extent that the Sellers indemnify the Purchaser in accordance with this Agreement, the Purchaser shall promptly assign or procure to have assigned to the respective Seller all claims the Purchaser might have against any third party (in particular insurances) in connection with the event that caused such Losses for which, and to the extent, the respective Seller grants the Purchaser indemnification. In the event that an assignment of such claims is not possible for legal reasons, the Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts that the respective Seller and any of its Affiliates be put in a position as if such assignment had been effected. In any event, the Purchaser shall use its reasonable best efforts that the full benefits of all insurances in respect of matters for which the respective Seller shall grant indemnity hereunder shall be received by the respective Seller. In respect of any claim for which assignment is not possible, the respective Seller shall at all times give

10.5 Claim Notices

- (a) In case of a potential claim of the Purchaser under or in connection with this Agreement, but other than in relation to Taxes, the Purchaser shall submit to the respective Seller without undue delay but in any event within fifteen (15) Business Days after discovery of the relevant facts by the Purchaser a written notice justifying a claim for indemnification under or in connection with this Agreement and announcing the Purchaser's intention to hold the respective Seller liable, such written notice to specify in reasonable detail the facts upon which the alleged claim is based, the alleged legal basis of the claim, and, to the extent possible, the estimated amount of such claim.
- (b) A failure of the Purchaser to comply with its obligations pursuant to this Section 10.5 with respect to a specific claim of the Purchaser hereunder shall release the respective Seller from its obligation to indemnify the Purchaser therefor under or in connection with this Agreement only if and to the extent the respective Seller is prejudiced by such failure.

10.6 Purchase Price Adjustment

To the extent permitted by Applicable Law, the Parties agree that any indemnity payments by one Party to the other pursuant to this Agreement shall be treated as adjustments of the Purchase Price for Tax purposes, and in any event shall be made without any deduction for Taxes, costs or charges.

10.7 Sole Remedy

- (a) The Purchaser hereby acknowledges and agrees that its sole and exclusive remedy with respect to any and all Losses or other detriments relating to the subject matter of this Agreement shall be pursuant to the indemnification provisions of this Section 10 and the provisions of the BCA. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Purchaser hereby waives to the fullest extent permitted under Applicable Law any and all other statutory or contractual claims relating to the subject matter of this Agreement not covered by this Section 10 or by the BCA. As amplification and without limitation any claims based on statutory principles of breach of contract in particular "kaufrechtliche Gewährleistungsansprüche" including "Nacherfüllung", rescission (Rückabwicklung) or challenge (Anfechtungsrechte) of this Agreement are expressly excluded; provided that any claims for fulfillment of this Agreement (primäre Erfüllungsansprüche) which are not expressly and specifically the subject matter of a Representation, and (solely) claims for monetary damages as a result of the breach of covenants or the non-fulfillment of other obligations pursuant to this Agreement are not affected by this Section 10.7, however, only if and to the extent they are not limited or restricted by a provision of this Agreement. The Purchaser shall in no event have a right to rescind, cancel or otherwise terminate this Agreement or to exercise any right or remedy which would have a similar effect.

- (b) The Purchaser furthermore acknowledges and agrees that neither any direct or indirect shareholder or member of the Sellers nor any of their respective directors, officers, employees or advisors shall have any liability or obligation towards the Purchaser, arising out of, connected with, or resulting from the activities of any of the foregoing in connection with the preparation, negotiation and implementation of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.
- (c) For the avoidance of doubt: The provisions of this Section 10.7 shall not affect any rights and remedies of a Purchaser for fraud or willful misconduct (Vorsatz) to the extent they cannot legally be waived in advance.

11. Representations and Warranties by the Purchaser

The Purchaser hereby represents and warrants to each of the Sellers by way of an independent guarantee (Section 311 para. 1 of the German Civil Code (BGB)) that the following statements set forth in this Section 11 (the "Purchaser Representations"), are true and correct as of the date hereof. In the event of a breach of a Purchaser Representation Section 10.1 shall apply mutatis mutandis.

- (a) The Purchaser is a limited liability company validly incorporated and organized under German law.
- (b) The Purchaser is an entrepreneur for German VAT purpose and the Sold Business will be used for his entrepreneurial activities.
- (c) The Purchaser has the right and corporate authority to execute this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated herein.

12. Certain Covenants

12.1 Inadvertently Sold or Omitted Assets

Within nine (9) months after the Closing Date:

- (a) if any contracts, employees or Aerospace Know-How not reasonably required for the continuation of the Specialty Aerospace Business are inadvertently sold and/or transferred under this Agreement ("Purchaser's Wrong-Box Items"), the Purchaser shall transfer such Purchaser's Wrong-Box Items to the relevant Seller (or any Person designated by the Sellers) upon its request without consideration;

The right to claim further damages, if any, shall remain unaffected. For the avoidance of doubt: A party shall automatically and without any further notice requirements be regarded as being in default with payments if such payments are not effected when due. To the extent legally possible, all statutory provisions to the contrary are hereby waived.

The aforementioned obligations shall not apply to the disclosure of the contents of this Agreement (i) to directors, officers, employees and advisors of a Party, and (ii) to Affiliates or to the banks and financing institutions financing the transactions contemplated in this Agreement or the BCA or direct or indirect shareholders (and their directors, officers, employees and advisors).

The respective invalid or unenforceable provision shall be replaced by the Parties, and the gap be filled by the Parties, by a legally valid arrangement which corresponds as closely as possible to the intention of the Parties or what would have been the intention of the Parties according to the aim and purpose of this Agreement if they had considered the issue.

12. FURTHER ASSURANCE

Each Party shall, at its own cost, promptly execute and deliver all such documents, and do all such things, as the other Party may from time to time reasonably require for the purpose of giving full effect to the provisions of this Agreement and to secure for the other Party the full benefit of the rights, powers and remedies conferred upon it under this Agreement.

The Sponsor hereby agrees that it shall not commit or agree to take any action inconsistent with the foregoing.

(b) The Sponsor shall comply with, and fully perform all of its obligations, covenants and agreements set forth in, that certain Letter Agreement, dated as of October 28, 2021, by and among the Sponsor, Acquiror and the other parties thereto (the "Letter Agreement"), including without limitation the obligations of the Sponsor pursuant to Section 3 therein to not redeem any SEDA Shares owned by the Sponsor in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement.

(c) From the date hereof until the Expiration Time, and unless expressly permitted pursuant to the terms of the Business Combination Agreement, the Sponsor shall not modify or amend any Contract between or among the Sponsor or any Affiliate of the Sponsor (other than Acquiror), on the one hand, and Acquiror, on the other hand.

Section 1.6 Founder Shares Conversion.

(a) The Sponsor hereby agrees that, immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger (but subject to the prior satisfaction of all of the conditions to consummation of the Merger set forth in Article 12 of the Business Combination Agreement), the Sponsor shall contribute, transfer, assign, convey and deliver to Acquiror, and Acquiror shall acquire and accept from the Sponsor, all of the Sponsor's right, title, and interest in, to and under the Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares and, in exchange therefor, Acquiror shall issue to the Sponsor SEDA Class A Shares, free and clear of all Liens as provided below (the "Founder Shares Conversion").

(b) In connection with the Founder Shares Conversion, all Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares shall be exchanged and converted into 1,593,941 SEDA Class A Shares.

(c) No certificates will be issued in connection with the Founder Shares Conversion, and Acquiror will record the exchange of Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares for the SEDA Class A Shares that the Sponsor is acquiring pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Section 1.6 on its books and records. Following the Founder Shares Conversion and the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement, the Sponsor will not hold any Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares.

(d) The Founder Shares Conversion shall be applicable only in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement and this Sponsor Agreement, and the Founder Shares Conversion shall be void and of no force and effect in the event this Sponsor Agreement is terminated prior to the Closing.

(e) The parties hereto intend that the Founder Shares Conversion will be treated as a tax-free recapitalization under Section 368(a)(1)(E) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended.

Section 1.7 Reimbursement of Sponsor Loans.

(a) Acquiror and Sponsor hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agree that:

(i) if, immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger (and, for the avoidance of doubt, prior to the Founder Shares Conversion), any amounts (the "Sponsor Loans") are outstanding under the Sponsor Working Capital Promissory Note or the Sponsor Extension Funding Promissory Note, any such Sponsor Loans shall, at the Sponsor's option, immediately be repaid in cash or converted into the corresponding number of SEDA Warrants or SEDA Class A Shares (as applicable under the terms of the Sponsor Working Capital Promissory Note or the Sponsor Extension Funding Promissory Note); and

(ii) following settlement of the Sponsor Loans pursuant to this Section 1.7, the Sponsor Loans shall be fully extinguished and Acquiror and the Sponsor shall have no obligation to each other in respect of the Sponsor Working Capital Promissory Note or Sponsor Extension Funding Promissory Note.

Section 1.8 Further Assurances. The Sponsor shall take, or cause to be taken, all such further actions and do, or cause to be done, all things reasonably necessary under applicable Laws to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth therein.

Section 1.9 No Inconsistent Agreement. The Sponsor hereby represents and covenants that it has not entered into, and shall not enter into, any agreement that would restrict, limit or interfere with the performance of the Sponsor's obligations hereunder.

ARTICLE II

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 2.1 Representations and Warranties. The Sponsor represents and warrants as of the date hereof to Acquiror and PubCo as follows:

(a) Organization; Due Authorization. The Sponsor is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the Cayman Islands, and the execution, delivery and performance of this Sponsor Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby are within the Sponsor's limited liability company powers and have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate, limited liability company or organizational actions on the part of the Sponsor. This Sponsor

Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Sponsor and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by the other parties to this Sponsor Agreement, this Sponsor Agreement constitutes a legally valid and binding obligation of the Sponsor, enforceable against the Sponsor in accordance with the terms hereof, subject to any Enforceability Exceptions.

(b) Ownership. The Sponsor is the record and beneficial owner (as defined in the Securities Act) of, and has good title to, all of the Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares, and there exist no Liens or any other limitation or restriction (including any restriction on the right to vote, sell or otherwise dispose of such Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares (other than transfer restrictions under the Securities Act)) affecting any such Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares, other than Liens pursuant to (i) this Sponsor Agreement, (ii) Acquiror's Governing Documents, (iii) the Business Combination Agreement, (iv) the Letter Agreement, or (vi) any applicable securities Laws. The Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares are the only equity securities of Acquiror owned of record or beneficially by the Sponsor on the date of this Sponsor Agreement, and none of the Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares are subject to any proxy, voting trust or other agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting of such Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares, except as provided hereunder and under the Letter Agreement. Other than the SEDA Private Warrants or pursuant to any rights under any Working Capital Promissory Note or Extension Funding Promissory Note, on the date hereof, the Sponsor does not hold or own any rights to acquire (directly or indirectly) any equity securities of Acquiror or any equity securities convertible into, or which can be exchanged for, equity securities of Acquiror.

(c) No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Sponsor Agreement by the Sponsor does not, and the performance by the Sponsor of its obligations hereunder will not, (i) conflict with or result in a violation of the Organizational Documents of the Sponsor, or (ii) require any consent or approval that has not been given or other action that has not been taken by any Person (including under any Contract binding upon the Sponsor or the Sponsor SEDA Class B Shares), in each case, to the extent such consent, approval or other action would prevent, enjoin or materially delay the performance by the Sponsor of its obligations under this Sponsor Agreement.

(d) Litigation. There are no Actions pending against the Sponsor, or to the knowledge of the Sponsor threatened against the Sponsor, before (or, in the case of threatened Actions, that would be before) any arbitrator or any Governmental Authority, which in any manner challenges or seeks to prevent, enjoin or materially delay the performance by the Sponsor of its obligations under this Sponsor Agreement.

(e) Brokerage Fees. Except as described on Section 7.07 of the SEDA Disclosure Schedules, no broker, finder, investment banker or other Person is entitled to any brokerage fee, finders' fee or other commission in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Business Combination Agreement based upon arrangements made by the Sponsor, for which Acquiror or any of its Affiliates may become liable.

(f) Affiliate Arrangements. Except as set forth on Schedule I hereto, neither the Sponsor nor, to the knowledge of the Sponsor, any Person in which the Sponsor has a direct or indirect legal, contractual or beneficial ownership of five percent (5%) or greater is party to, or has any rights with respect to or arising from, any Contract with Acquiror.

(g) Acknowledgment. The Sponsor understands and acknowledges that each of Acquiror and PubCo is entering into the Business Combination Agreement in reliance upon the Sponsor's execution and delivery of this Sponsor Agreement.

(h) No Other Representations or Warranties. Except for the representations and warranties made by the Sponsor in this ARTICLE II, the Sponsor does not make any express or implied representation or warranty to Acquiror or PubCo in connection with this Sponsor Agreement or the transactions contemplated by this Sponsor Agreement, and the Sponsor expressly disclaims any such other representations or warranties.

ARTICLE III

MISCELLANEOUS

Section 3.1 Termination. This Sponsor Agreement and all of its provisions shall terminate and be of no further force or effect upon the earlier of (a) the Expiration Time, (b) the liquidation of Acquiror pursuant to applicable Law and the Organizational Documents of Acquiror, and (c) the written agreement of the Sponsor, Acquiror, and PubCo. Upon such termination of this Sponsor Agreement, all obligations of the parties under this Sponsor Agreement will terminate, without any liability or other obligation on the part of any party hereto to any Person in respect hereof or the transactions contemplated hereby, and no party hereto shall have any claim against another (and no person shall have any rights against such party), whether under contract, tort or otherwise, with respect to the subject matter hereof; provided, however, that the termination of this Sponsor Agreement shall not relieve any party hereto from liability arising in respect of any breach of this Sponsor Agreement prior to such termination. This ARTICLE III shall survive the termination of this Sponsor Agreement.

Section 3.2 Governing Law. This Sponsor Agreement and all disputes or controversies arising out of or relating to this Sponsor Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, including the applicable statute of limitations, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the Laws of the State of Delaware, without giving effect to any choice of law or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of Delaware or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the Law of any jurisdiction other than the State of Delaware.

Section 3.3 CONSENT TO JURISDICTION AND SERVICE OF PROCESS; WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL

(a) THE PARTIES TO THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMIT TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF DELAWARE AND THE COURT OF CHANCERY OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE (OR, TO THE EXTENT SUCH COURT DOES NOT HAVE SUBJECT MATTER JURISDICTION, THE SUPERIOR COURT OF THE STATE OF DELAWARE) IN RESPECT OF THE INTERPRETATION AND ENFORCEMENT OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT AND ANY RELATED AGREEMENT, CERTIFICATE OR OTHER DOCUMENT DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH AND BY THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT. THE PARTIES TO THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVE, AND AGREE NOT TO ASSERT, ANY DEFENSE IN ANY ACTION FOR THE INTERPRETATION OR ENFORCEMENT OF THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT AND ANY RELATED AGREEMENT, CERTIFICATE OR OTHER DOCUMENT DELIVERED IN CONNECTION HEREWITH, THAT THEY ARE NOT SUBJECT THERETO OR THAT SUCH ACTION MAY NOT BE BROUGHT OR IS NOT MAINTAINABLE IN SUCH COURTS OR THAT THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT MAY NOT BE ENFORCED IN OR BY SUCH COURTS OR THAT THEIR PROPERTY IS EXEMPT OR IMMUNE FROM EXECUTION, THAT THE ACTION IS BROUGHT IN AN INCONVENIENT FORUM, OR THAT THE VENUE OF THE ACTION IS IMPROPER. SERVICE OF PROCESS WITH RESPECT THERETO MAY BE MADE UPON ANY PARTY TO THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT BY MAILING A COPY THEREOF BY REGISTERED OR CERTIFIED MAIL, POSTAGE PREPAID, TO SUCH PARTY AT ITS ADDRESS AS PROVIDED IN SECTION 3.8.

(b) WAIVER OF TRIAL BY JURY. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY WHICH MAY ARISE UNDER THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY ACTION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY HERETO CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (I) NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (II) EACH SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (III) EACH SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (IV) EACH SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS SPONSOR AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 3.3.

Section 3.4 Assignment. This Sponsor Agreement and all of the provisions hereof will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective heirs, successors and permitted assigns. Neither this Sponsor Agreement nor any of the rights, interests or obligations hereunder will be assigned (including by operation of law) without the prior written consent of all of the other parties hereto. Any attempted assignment of this Sponsor Agreement not in accordance with the terms of this Section 3.4 shall be void.

Section 3.5 Specific Performance. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage, for which monetary damages, even if available, would not be an adequate remedy, would occur in the event that the parties hereto do not perform their respective obligations under the provisions of this Sponsor Agreement (including failing to take such actions as are required of them hereunder to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Sponsor Agreement) in accordance with their specific terms or otherwise breach such provisions. It is accordingly agreed that the parties hereto shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions, specific performance and other equitable relief to prevent breaches of this Sponsor Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Sponsor Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Sponsor Agreement, in each case, without posting a bond or undertaking and without proof of damages, and this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. Each of the parties hereto agrees that it will not oppose the granting of an injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief when expressly available pursuant to the terms of this Sponsor Agreement on the basis that (a) the other parties hereto have an adequate remedy at law, or (b) an award of specific performance is not an appropriate remedy for any reason at law or in equity.

Section 3.6 Amendment; Waiver. This Sponsor Agreement may not be amended, modified or terminated (other than as provided in Section 3.1), except upon a written agreement executed and delivered by Acquiror, PubCo and the Sponsor. Any waiver of any breach of this Sponsor Agreement extended by Acquiror or PubCo to the Sponsor shall not be construed as a waiver of any rights or remedies of Acquiror or PubCo with respect to any subsequent breach of the Sponsor. Any waiver of any provisions hereof by any party hereto shall not be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

Section 3.7 Severability. Whenever possible, each provision of this Sponsor Agreement will be interpreted in such a manner as to be effective and valid under applicable Law, but if any term or other provision of this Sponsor Agreement is held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable under applicable Law, then all other provisions of this Sponsor Agreement shall remain in full force and effect. Upon such determination that any term or other provision of this Sponsor Agreement is invalid, illegal or unenforceable under applicable Law, the parties hereto shall take any actions necessary to render the remaining provisions of this Sponsor Agreement valid and enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Law and, to the extent necessary, negotiate in good faith to modify this Sponsor Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties hereto as closely as possible in an acceptable manner in order that the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated as originally contemplated to the greatest extent possible.

Section 3.8 Notices. All notices, requests, claims, demands and other communications hereunder shall be in writing and shall be given (and shall be deemed to have been duly given) by (a) delivery in person, (b) posting in the United States mail (having been sent registered or certified mail return receipt requested, postage prepaid), (c) FedEx or other nationally recognized overnight delivery service or (d) e-mail (having obtained electronic delivery confirmation thereof, but excluding any automated reply, such as an out-of-office notification), addressed as follows:

The Anchor Class A Shares and the Anchor SEDA Class B Shares are the only equity securities of Acquiror owned of record or beneficially by the Anchor on the date of this Agreement, and none of the Anchor Class A Shares or Anchor SEDA Class B Shares are subject to any proxy, voting trust or other agreement or arrangement with respect to the voting of such Anchor Class A Shares or Anchor SEDA Class B Shares, except as provided hereunder and under the Letter Agreement. (c) No Conflicts. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Anchor does not, and the performance by the Anchor of its obligations hereunder will not, (i) conflict with or result in a violation of the Organizational Documents of the Anchor, or (ii) require any consent or approval that has not been given or other action that has not been taken by any Person (including under any Contract binding upon the Anchor or the Anchor Class A Shares or Anchor SEDA Class B Shares), in each case, to the extent such consent, approval or other action would prevent, enjoin or materially delay the performance by the Anchor of its obligations under this Agreement.

(d) Litigation. There are no Actions pending or, to the knowledge of the Anchor, threatened against the Anchor, before (or, in the case of threatened Actions, that would be before) any arbitrator or any Governmental Authority, which in any manner challenges or seeks to prevent, enjoin or materially delay the performance by the Anchor of its obligations under this Agreement.

(e) Brokerage Fees. cunova, a leading global manufacturer of high-end specialty copper alloy products, and SDCL EDGE Acquisition Corporation announce their business combination

cunova to simultaneously acquire KME Group's aerospace specialty metals business

- The proposed business combination is expected to create a scaled, global manufacturer of mission-critical specialty copper alloy products with growth opportunities across diverse end markets including casting, aerospace, maritime, industrial and energy.
- The combined company will have a compelling and proven business model with historically high recurring revenue and attractive margins, dynamic competitive positioning and barriers to entry, and limited exposure to commodity price variation risk.
- If the proposed business combination is consummated, the combined company is expected to have an enterprise value of approximately US$736 million.

Osnabrück, Germany & New York City - cunova GmbH ("cunova") a leading global manufacturer of high-end specialty copper alloy products, and SDCL EDGE Acquisition Corporation (NYSE: SEDA) ("SEDA"), a special purpose acquisition company, today announced that they have entered into a definitive business combination agreement that is expected to result in cunova becoming a publicly listed company on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE").

Headquartered in Osnabrück, Germany, cunova is a leading global producer of mission-critical copper alloy products and related services and solutions for a diverse array of end markets including casting, maritime, industrial and energy.

Cunova has an established reputation and long-term relationships with a loyal base of blue-chip customers, including a majority of the 25 largest steel companies across four continents. Cunova's products are often both mission-critical and integrated into clients' processes. Copper is one of the most widely used metals today, and it is anticipated that the combined company will be well positioned to capitalize on a sustained global demand for copper alloys with high conductivity performance in thermal or electrical applications, driven by new emerging markets and technological advancements. Cunova's acquisition of the whole aerospace specialty metals business of KME Group ("KME Aerospace") would enable the combined company to also serve the space exploration and general aerospace markets.

Cunova is dedicated to resource efficiency and the circular economy, and supports the transition to energy conservation. Cunova's products offer high levels of endurance, including temperature and pressure resistance, allowing them to last longer without replacement and enabling critical components to be recycled. In 2023, over half of the copper used to make cunova's products was sourced from recycled scrap.

"We are thrilled to partner with SEDA. They have a deep understanding of our business, vision, and growth opportunities," said Werner Stegmüller, CEO of cunova. "As a global leader in the copper industry with an extensive history of success, cunova is relentlessly committed to understanding and anticipating our customers' needs. We strive to be constantly innovative so as to deliver high-end, value-added products and solutions that are both mission-critical and specific to our customers' processes. As a result, we have built exceptionally close relationships with our customers and an attractive business model with recurring revenues. We believe we are well-positioned to deliver sustained, profitable growth and returns to shareholders by leveraging our world-class platform to expand into new markets, driven by emerging technology and trends, including space exploration."

"We are excited to join forces with KME Aerospace, which we believe will give us access to a new, exciting, and high-growth end market. Space exploration activity is currently outpacing the reusability rate of engines and we expect this could triple our addressable copper component market opportunity from 2023 to 2030. As an established provider of mission-critical rocket engine components to nearly all the western tier one companies in the space exploration sector, we believe KME Aerospace currently has a first mover advantage in this end market," added Werner Stegmüller, CEO of cunova.

"We are extremely pleased to be partnering with cunova to help them advance their vision and growth strategy," said Jonathan Maxwell, Chairman and Co-CEO of SEDA. "We set out to acquire a company with a proven business model and strong growth prospects that is poised to create long-term value for shareholders, and we believe cunova meets these criteria. Finally, as a provider of critical components that support the transition to energy conservation and resource efficiency in the maritime and steel industries and, following its acquisition of KME Aerospace, the aerospace industry, the combined company is expected to contribute meaningfully to its customers' sustainability initiatives."

"As part of cunova, we believe KME Aerospace will be well positioned to capitalize on growth opportunities in space exploration. As the anticipated majority shareholder of cunova following the listing, KME Group will also have a vested interest in cunova's long-term growth and success," said Vincenzo Manes, Chairman of KME Group.

Transaction Overview

Under the terms of the proposed business combination agreement, cunova will be indirectly acquired by a publicly-listed, successor entity of SDCL EDGE Acquisition Corporation. Also as part of the proposed business combination, cunova will acquire KME Aerospace from KME Group. The combined company is expected to be listed on the NYSE. Paragon Partners, the current majority shareholder of cunova through its vehicle The Paragon Fund III GmbH & Co. geschlossene Investment KG ("Paragon"), is expected to exit cunova as a result of the proposed business combination, and KME Group is expected to become the majority shareholder of cunova.

At closing, the combined company is expected to have a pro-forma enterprise value of approximately US$736 million comprised of pro forma net debt of US$289 million and an equity value of approximately US$447 million. Existing SEDA shareholders and any potential investors agreeing to commit to any equity transaction that may be completed prior to the closing of the proposed business combination are expected to own approximately 39.9% of the shares outstanding of the combined company and KME Group is expected to own the approximate remaining 60.1%. These estimates are subject to certain assumptions as well as market conditions and the final transaction structure.

The business combination values cunova and KME Aerospace at an enterprise value of approximately 9.4 times cunova's pro forma 2023 Adjusted EBITDA of US$78 million.

The board of SEDA and the shareholders of cunova have approved the proposed business combination subject to customary closing conditions. The closing conditions include, but are not limited to, obtaining all required regulatory approvals, the approval of the shareholders of SEDA, securing minimum cash of US$140 million, refinancing cunova's current debt, and the registration statement to be filed in connection with the proposed business combination being declared effective by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Assuming satisfaction of all closing conditions, the proposed business combination is expected to close in the second quarter of 2024.

PRESS RELEASE

KME SE signs a business combination agreement for an equity transaction relating to the company cunova (in which it currently indirectly holds 45%)

Milan, 20 February 2024 – Following the press release published on 21st August 2023, KME Group SpA (“KME” and together with any of its group companies “KME Group”) informs that its subsidiary KME SE has signed a Business Combination Agreement (“BCA”) relating to the special product business operated by cunova GmbH (“cunova”), in which KME SE currently holds an indirect stake of 45%.

Control over cunova (55% of the share capital) was transferred by KME SE to The Paragon Fund III GmbH & Co. geschlossene Investment KG (“Paragon”), a German private equity fund, in January 2022.

The BCA was signed, amongst others, between KME SE, Paragon and SDCL EDGE Acquisition Corporation (“SEDA”), a publicly traded special purpose acquisition company listed on the NYSE.

Under the terms of the BCA, cunova will be indirectly acquired by a publicly-listed, successor entity of SEDA. Also as part of the proposed business combination, cunova will acquire KME Aerospace (as defined below) from KME Group and the combined company is expected to be listed on the NYSE (“Business Combination”). As a result of the contemplated Business Combination, KME SE would convert its 45% stake held in cunova, as well as its receivables, into shares of the combined company listed on the NYSE and would further increase its shareholding as a result of the transfer of its aerospace business (“KME Aerospace”), a leading engineering business that supplies high-tolerance copper alloy components to major players in the aerospace industry. At completion of the transaction, KME SE would hold a majority stake of the share capital of the combined company listed on the NYSE and would receive cash proceeds in the amount of $20 million. Paragon is expected to exit cunova in exchange for cash proceeds and a vendor loan.

Completion of the Business Combination, which is expected in the second quarter of 2024, is subject to various closing conditions, which include, but are not limited to, obtaining all required regulatory approvals, the approval of the shareholders of SEDA, securing minimum cash of $140 million, refinancing cunova’s current debt, and the registration statement on Form F-4 to be filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) in connection with the Business Combination being declared effective by the SEC. Under the terms of the BCA, KME SE has agreed to cover up to $35 million of the cash proceeds to be paid to Paragon at the time of closing of the Business Combination. Although the signing of the BCA constitutes an important step forward, no assurance can be given that the closing conditions will be satisfied and the Business Combination will be completed.

The Business Combination has an important strategic value to the KME Group, because it allows KME Group to reacquire the majority of cunova, increasing its potential through the contribution of KME Aerospace, with the result of holding control (about 60%) of a business with very significant expected future growth prospects from a strategic point of view.

At closing, the combined company is expected to have a pro-forma enterprise value of approximately $736 million comprised of pro forma net debt of $289 million and an equity value of approximately $447 million, of which about 60% would be held by KME SE.

Certain statements, estimates, targets and projections contained in this Presentation may constitute "forward-looking statements" for purposes of the federal securities laws. Actual results may differ from their expectations, estimates and projections and consequently, you should not rely on those forward-looking statements as predictors of future events or future performance of SEDA or the Target. These forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements regarding SEDA, the Target or their respective management teams' conclusions, expectations, hopes, beliefs, intentions or strategies regarding the future and/or future events or circumstances. In addition, any statements that refer to projections, forecasts or other characterizations of future events or circumstances, including any underlying assumptions, are forward-looking statements. The words "addressing," "anticipate," "become," "benefit," "believe," "creating," "continue," "covered," "enabling," "expected," "growing," "implementing," "improve," "includes," "increasing," "intended," "may," "projected," "provide," "remain," "resulting," "shown," "support," "will," and similar expressions may identify forward-looking statements, but the absence of these words or expressions does not mean that a statement is not forward-looking. Forward-looking statements in this Presentation may include, for illustrative and non-exhaustive purposes only, statements about:

- SEDA's ability to engage in and complete the Initial Business Combination;
- SEDA's expectations and estimates regarding the performance of the Target;
- SEDA's expectations and estimates regarding the markets and market participants relevant to the Target;
- SEDA's public securities' potential liquidity and trading;
- SEDA's financial performance following its initial public offering;
- Target's ability to complete the acquisition of the Aerospace Business of KME Group by Cunova GmbH ("Cunova"), and
- Target's projected future operational and financial performance, including anticipated benefits of Cunova's acquisition of the Aerospace Business of KME Group and the proposed business combination between the Target and SEDA.

Such forward-looking statements are subject to risks, uncertainties, and other factors which could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include, but are not limited to, various factors beyond management's control, including other risks and uncertainties set forth in the section entitled "Risk Factors" in SEDA's final prospectus dated October 28, 2021 relating to its initial public offering and other risks and uncertainties indicated from time to time in the definitive proxy statement to be delivered to SEDA shareholders and related registration statement of the Target on Form F-4, including those set forth under "Risk Factors" therein, or as otherwise indicated from time to time in other documents filed or to be filed with the SEC by SEDA or the Target. Accordingly, any projections, modeling or analysis may differ materially and should not be viewed as factual and should not be relied upon as an accurate or complete prediction of future results, events or circumstances. Further, the information contained in this Presentation may derive, either in whole or in part, from various internal and external sources. No representation or warranty is made as to the reasonableness of the assumptions made within or the accuracy or completeness of any projections, modeling or analysis or any other information contained in this Presentation. Any financial information in this Presentation (including specifically the projections) that are forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies, many of which are beyond the Target's control. The assumptions and estimates underlying the projected results are inherently uncertain and are subject to a wide variety of significant business, economic and competitive risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those contained in the projections.

The financial information and data for Cunova for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2023 and for the Aerospace Business for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2023 and 2022 contained in this Presentation is unaudited, based on draft statutory accounts, does not conform to Regulation S-X, and is subject to PCAOB audit. Accordingly, such information and data may not be included in, may be adjusted in or may be presented differently in the final registration statement to be filed with the SEC and the definitive proxy statement/prospectus contained therein.

In this presentation, we use a number of key operating metrics, including Full Added Value (FAV), and non-IFRS financial measures, including EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA and ROCE, which we believe accurately, in all material respects, reflect the principal parameters of our historic performance.

The financial measures EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, and ROCE, and measures calculated based on these measures, that are not prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ("GAAP") or international financial reporting standards ("IFRS"). These non-GAAP/non-IFRS measures, and other measures that are calculated using these non-GAAP/non-IFRS measures, are an addition, and not a substitute for or superior to measures of financial performance prepared in accordance with GAAP or IFRS and should not be considered as an alternative to operating income, net income or any other performance measures derived in accordance with GAAP or IFRS. The Target believes these non-GAAP/non-IFRS measures of financial results provide useful information to management and potential investors regarding certain financial and business trends relating to the Target's financial condition and results of operations. The Target believes that the use of these non-GAAP/non-IFRS financial measures provides an additional tool for potential investors to use in comparing the Target's financial condition and results of operations with other similar companies, many of which present similar non-GAAP/non-IFRS financial measures to investors. There are a number of limitations related to the use of these non-GAAP/non-IFRS financial measures and their nearest GAAP/IFRS equivalents. For example, the Target's definitions of non-GAAP/non-IFRS financial measures may differ from non-GAAP/non-IFRS financial measures used by other companies and therefore the non-GAAP/non-IFRS measures in this Presentation may not be directly comparable to similarly titled measures of other companies. For reconciliations to the most directly comparable GAAP/IFRS measure, see Appendix A hereto.

SEDA expresses certain intentions only. The Presentation and the information contained in it do not constitute an offer capable of acceptance or intended to otherwise give rise to a binding contract. The Presentation and the information contained in it do not constitute a commitment of SEDA or the Target to engage in the Initial Business Combination or to underwrite or place any financing or securities in relation to any business combination. Unless and until a definitive agreement is entered into regarding the Initial Business Combination, SEDA and the Target will not be under any obligation whatsoever with respect to the Initial Business Combination, including, without limitation, to negotiate terms of the Initial Business Combination, except as specifically set forth herein.

Signing of a business combination agreement with respect to the Initial Business Combination will be subject to the receipt of all necessary approvals, and the finalisation of relevant agreements for any acquisition to the satisfaction of SEDA and the Target.

The information contained in this Presentation is based on present circumstances, economic and market conditions, assumptions, and beliefs. Neither SEDA or the Target has any obligation to update this Presentation or correct any inaccuracies or omissions it discovers following the date of this Presentation.

SEDA is an "emerging growth company" as defined under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). SDCL is authorized and regulated in the United Kingdom by the Financial Conduct Authority. The information contained herein does not constitute or form part of, and should not be construed as, an offer or invitation to purchase, subscribe for, underwrite or otherwise acquire, any securities of SEDA or any other person nor should it or any part of it form the basis of, or be relied on in connection with, any contract to purchase or subscribe for any securities of SEDA or any other person or in connection with any other contract or commitment whatsoever.

 - 2 Outlook supported by strong market fundamentals across key end markets
 - 3 History of anticipating and meeting market needs across addressable markets and well positioned to capitalize on existing growth markets
 - 4 Long-term relationships with blue chip customers – resulting in low churn and approximately 25% recurring revenue¹
 - 5 Important contributor to sustainability and the energy transition in the electric vehicle and aerospace engine sectors
 - 6 Consistent, through-the-cycle profitability with substantial long-term upside, supported by high returns and margins, low capital requirements and virtually no commodity price exposure
 - 7 Highly attractive entry valuation relative to peers as the Company currently expects to benefit from KME Group's fast-growing Aerospace business, which is expected to become a greater proportion of the Company's overall business following the proposed business combination

6 A business model that passes through commodity price risk

Adjusted EBITDA¹ (US$m), Adjusted EBITDA margin (%) vs copper price (US$/mt)²

Supply agreements

- Supply agreements are in place with KME and other suppliers for provision of material in accordance with pre-agreed specifications
- At the time the Company enters into a sales agreement with a customer, the Company only purchases the amount of material it requires from its suppliers
- The commodity price charged by the Company's suppliers are passed through to the customer
- The Company also has the right to sell scrap to KME for recycling

The Company passes its commodity costs through to customers, as demonstrated by its consistent margins through the recent commodity price cycle

6 Anticipated business growth drivers

Management's current view

- Over the long-term, top-line expected to grow at a higher rate than global crude steel production (excluding China)
 - Steel market outperformance driven by:
 - Increasing service portfolio of Casting Services – “going down the caster” and products manufactured by other suppliers
 - Increasing market share of Casting Technologies through optimization of go-to-market strategy, including making key hires in key regions
 - Increasing presence and market share in India
- Potential for further growth through implementing mould as a critical sensor in steel plant automation
- Margins expected to slightly improve with top-line growth due to fixed cost absorption and optimization of production process

- Over the long-term, top line expected to grow proportionately with expansion of addressable copper component market
- Potential for further growth over the medium to long term through expanding product offering to additional components of the rocket engine and increases to non-satellite space exploration activity
- Margins expected to improve with top-line growth due to fixed cost absorption

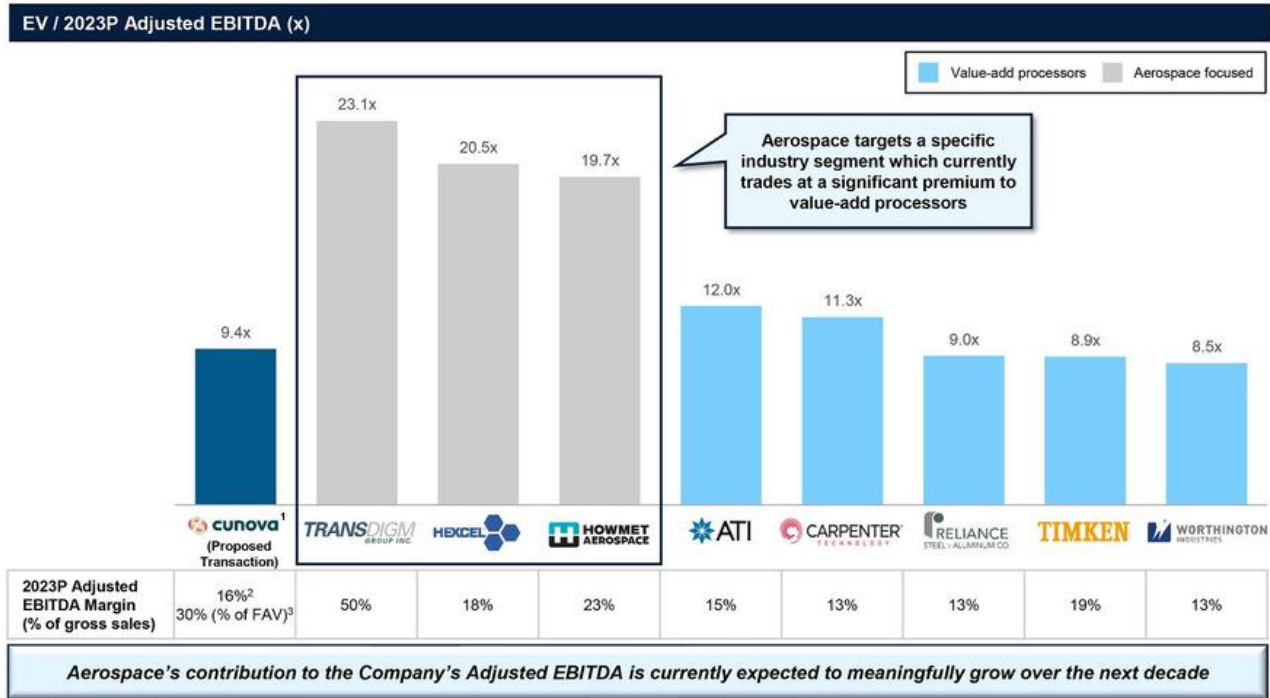

- Over the medium to long-term, top line expected to grow proportionately with increases in submarine part demand and upstream O&G spend
 - Virginia Class Block VI (10 shipsets) and Columbia Class expected to be tendered in 2023
- Slight margin expansion expected in the near-term due to increasing demand of CuNi 70/30 fittings mainly used in submarines

- Recent negative Adjusted EBITDA growth driven by weakness in core markets, most notably sputter screens for LEDs
- Core market recovery expected to support return to historical earnings levels in the near-term
- Further incremental top-line and margin growth expected through expansion into new markets, including additive manufacturing and EV technology

7 Attractive entry valuation – with significant potential upside
